284 3. An agency that is the custodian of the information
285 specified in subparagraph 2. and that is not the employer of the 286 officer, employee, justice, judge, or other person specified in 287 subparagraph 2. shall maintain the exempt status of that 288 information only if the officer, employee, justice, judge, other 289 person, or employing agency of the designated employee submits a 290 written request for maintenance of the exemption to the 291 custodial agency.

292 4. An officer, an employee, a justice, a judge, or other 293 person specified in subparagraph 2. may submit a written request 294 for the release of his or her exempt information to the 295 custodial agency. The written request must be notarized and must 296 specify the information to be released and the party that is 297 authorized to receive the information. Upon receipt of the 298 written request, the custodial agency shall release the 299 specified information to the party authorized to receive such 300 information.

301 5. The exemptions in this paragraph apply to information
302 held by an agency before, on, or after the effective date of the 303 exemption.

304 6. This paragraph is subject to the Open Government Sunset
305 Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and shall stand repealed
306 on October 2, 2024, unless reviewed and saved from repeal
307 through reenactment by the Legislature.

308 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public 309 necessity that the home addresses, telephone numbers, dates of 310 birth, and photographs of current or former emergency room
311 health care practitioners; that the names, home addresses, 312 telephone numbers, and places of employment of the spouses and 313 children of such practitioners; and that the names and locations 314 of schools and day care facilities attended by the children of 315 such practitioners be exempt from public records requirements.
316 Emergency room health care practitioners, by nature of their 317 duties, are often placed in traumatic circumstances in which 318 loss of life and severe bodily injuries have occurred. Such 319 practitioners are particularly vulnerable to physical violence, 320 harassment, and intimidation perpetrated by patients or 321 relatives of patients who can be violent, angry, or mentally 322 unstable. As a result, the Legislature finds that the release of 323 identifying and location information of emergency room health 324 care practitioners, or the spouses and children of such 325 practitioners, could place them in danger of being physically or

326 | emotionally harmed or stalked by a person who has a hostile
327 | reaction to his or her encounter with such practitioners. The
328 | Legislature further finds that the harm that may result from the
329 | release of such identifying and location information outweighs
330 | any public benefit that may be derived from the disclosure of
331 | the information.

332 | Section 3. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.
