HB 221 2020

A bill to be entitled

An act relating to osteopathic physicia

An act relating to osteopathic physician certification and licensure; amending s. 459.0055, F.S.; requiring the successful completion of an internship or residency for licensure or certification as an osteopathic physician; providing accreditation requirements for such internships and residencies; providing an effective date.

9

3

4

5

6

7

8

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

1112

13

10

Section 1. Paragraph (1) of subsection (1) of section 459.0055, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

14 15 459.0055 General licensure requirements.—

16 17 (1) Except as otherwise provided herein, any person desiring to be licensed or certified as an osteopathic physician pursuant to this chapter shall:

Demonstrate that she or he has successfully completed

181920

21

22

an internship or residency a resident internship of not less than 12 months in a program accredited hospital approved for this purpose by the Board of Trustees of the American Osteopathic Association or the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education any other internship program approved by the board upon a showing of good cause by the applicant. This requirement may be waived for an applicant who matriculated in a

2324

25

Page 1 of 2

CODING: Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.

HB 221 2020

college of osteopathic medicine during or before 1948; and Section 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.

Page 2 of 2

CODING: Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.