Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Between lines 284 and 285

insert:

Section 3. Paragraph (n) of subsection (2) of section 1003.42, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

1003.42 Required instruction.—

(2) Members of the instructional staff of the public schools, subject to the rules of the State Board of Education and the district school board, shall teach efficiently and faithfully, using the books and materials required that meet the 12 highest standards for professionalism and historical accuracy, 13 following the prescribed courses of study, and employing 14 approved methods of instruction, the following:

15 (n) Comprehensive health education that addresses concepts 16 of community health; consumer health; environmental health; 17 family life, including an awareness of the benefits of sexual 18 abstinence as the expected standard and the consequences of 19 teenage pregnancy; the full range of contraceptive methods
20 available to prevent teenage pregnancy; mental and emotional 21 health; injury prevention and safety; Internet safety;
22 nutrition; personal health; prevention and control of disease;
23 and substance use and abuse. The health education curriculum for 24 students in grades 7 through 12 shall include a teen dating 25 violence and abuse component that includes, but is not limited
26 to, the definition of dating violence and abuse, the warning 27 signs of dating violence and abusive behavior, the 28 characteristics of healthy relationships, measures to prevent 29 and stop dating violence and abuse, and community resources 30 available to victims of dating violence and abuse. The 31 Department of Health, in consultation with the department, shall 32 develop instructional materials regarding the full range of 33 contraceptive methods available to prevent teenage pregnancy, 34 including the efficacy of each method, which must be in easily 35 comprehensible language and include only medically accurate, 36 evidence-based information. School districts shall include the 37 instructional materials in their health education curriculum.

38
39 The State Board of Education is encouraged to adopt standards 40 and pursue assessment of the requirements of this subsection. A

41 character development program that incorporates the values of 42 the recipients of the Congressional Medal of Honor and that is 43 offered as part of a social studies, English Language Arts, or 44 other schoolwide character building and veteran awareness 45 initiative meets the requirements of paragraphs (s) and (t).
