277 staff are exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the 278 State Constitution.

279 3. An agency that is the custodian of the information 280 specified in subparagraph 2. and that is not the employer of the 281 officer, employee, justice, judge, or other person specified in 282 subparagraph 2. shall maintain the exempt status of that 283 information only if the officer, employee, justice, judge, other 284 person, or employing agency of the designated employee submits a 285 written request for maintenance of the exemption to the 286 custodial agency.

287 4. An officer, an employee, a justice, a judge, or other
288 person specified in subparagraph 2. may submit a written request 289 for the release of his or her exempt information to the 290 custodial agency. The written request must be notarized and must

18-01658A-21

291 specify the information to be released and the party that is 292 authorized to receive the information. Upon receipt of the 293 written request, the custodial agency shall release the 294 specified information to the party authorized to receive such 295 information.

296 5. The exemptions in this paragraph apply to information
297 held by an agency before, on, or after the effective date of the 298 exemption.

299 6. This paragraph is subject to the Open Government Sunset
300 Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and shall stand repealed
301 on October 2, 2024, unless reviewed and saved from repeal
302 through reenactment by the Legislature.

303 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public 304 necessity that the home addresses, telephone numbers, dates of 305 birth, and photographs of current or former inspectors of the 306 Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services; the names, home 307 addresses, telephone numbers, dates of birth, and places of 308 employment of the spouses and children of such staff; and the 309 names and locations of schools and day care facilities attended
310 by the children of such staff be exempt from public record
311 requirements. The release of such identifying and location 312 information may place current or former inspectors of the 313 department and their family members, and county tax collectors 314 through their work with such department personnel, in danger of 315 physical and emotional harm from disgruntled individuals who 316 have contentious reactions to revenue collection or enforcement
317 actions or child support enforcement actions or whose business 318 or professional practices have come under the scrutiny of 319 investigators and inspectors of the department. Such risk

18-01658A-21

20211594__

320 continues after their service with the department as disgruntled 321 individuals may wait to commit an act of revenge until after the 322 employment of the department personnel ends. If such identifying 323 and location information is released, the safety of current or 324 former personnel and their spouses and children could be 325 seriously jeopardized. For these reasons, the Legislature finds 326 that it is a public necessity that such information be made
327 exempt from public records requirements and that the harm that 328 may result from the release of such personal identifying and 329 location information outweighs any public benefit that may be 330 derived from the disclosure of the information.

331 Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2021.
