1	House Concurrent Resolution
2	A concurrent resolution acknowledging the injustices
3	perpetrated against the targets of the Florida
4	Legislative Investigation Committee between 1956 and
5	1965, and offering a formal and heartfelt apology to
6	those whose lives, well-being, and livelihoods were
7	damaged or destroyed by the activities and public
8	pronouncements of those who served on the committee.
9
10	WHEREAS, following the special session of the Florida
11	Legislature in July 1956, the act establishing the Florida
12	Legislative Investigation Committee (FLIC) became law, and
13	WHEREAS, following its establishment, the committee, in
14	conjunction with Tallahassee police, surveilled, harassed,
15	intimidated, and arrested members of the Inter-Civic Council,
16	students from Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University,
17	and other participants in the bus boycott and carpool network
18	that began in May 1956 and continued until December 1956, and
19	WHEREAS, on February 1, 1957, the FLIC held its first
20	public hearings, questioning Virgil Hawkins, an African-American
21	man who had been trying to enter the University of Florida law
22	school since 1949, as well as National Association for the
23	Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) attorneys Francisco
24	Rodriguez and Horace Hill, claiming that the NAACP was violating
25	the law by soliciting plaintiffs for desegregation lawsuits, and

26 WHEREAS, on February 25, 1957, the committee began public 27 hearings in Miami, demanding that the local NAACP branch 28 surrender all records, including membership lists, and claiming 29 that the branch had been infiltrated by current and former 30 communists, and

31 WHEREAS, the committee devoted the years of 1957 and 1958 32 to besmirching NAACP members as criminals and communist 33 sympathizers in order to slow or halt their efforts to 34 desegregate Florida schools and public spaces, and

35 WHEREAS, in November and December of 1958, the chief investigator of the FLIC began an inquiry into alleged 36 37 homosexual activity by faculty, staff, and students at the 38 University of Florida (UF) in Gainesville; allowed officers of 39 the UF police department to entrap and question without legal counsel those suspected of such activity; and threatened and 40 coerced those individuals with a public hearing or perjury 41 42 charges into confessing and identifying others as alleged 43 homosexuals, and

WHEREAS, the committee continued the UF and Gainesville investigations into 1959, having entrapped and intimidated dozens of individuals on and off campus, interrogating them in motel rooms and basements, resulting in the firing of 14 faculty and staff at UF, and

49 WHEREAS, in the spring of 1959 the committee reported to 50 the Florida Legislature that homosexual professors were

51 recruiting students into "homosexual practices" and they in turn 52 were becoming teachers in Florida's public school system and 53 recruiting even younger students, and

54 WHEREAS, the committee began 4 years of statewide 55 investigations into alleged homosexual activity by public school 56 teachers, administrators, and students, working with local law 57 enforcement and employing the same tactics used at the 58 University of Florida, and cooperating with the Florida Board of 59 Education to revoke individuals' teaching certificates, and

WHEREAS, in the spring of 1961, the committee began an inquiry into alleged homosexual activity, liberal teaching methods, curricula, and policies at the University of South Florida (USF) in Tampa, and

64 WHEREAS, the FLIC investigator and attorney, together with 65 local law enforcement, questioned USF faculty, staff, and 66 students in a motel room without appropriate legal counsel, and 67 gathered information about the allegedly anti-Christian, pro-68 integration, and pro-communist slant of reading assignments, 69 classroom lectures, and invited campus speakers, and

WHEREAS, the committee held public hearings to question USF faculty and administrators about the content of their courses, and policies related to hiring faculty and inviting speakers in an effort to discredit them as atheists, integrationists, and communist sympathizers, damaging individuals' careers and the state's national standing in higher education, and
