12 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

13
14 Section 1. Section 741.301, Florida Statutes, as created by 15 SB 1972, 2021 Regular Session, is amended to read:

16 741.301 Sealing of domestic violence injunction petitions
17 not granted.—

18 (1) A respondent to a petition made under s. 741.30 may 19 petition the court to seal the petition for injunction and all 20 records and documents related to it if the petition for 21 injunction was withdrawn or dismissed or if there was a ruling
22 in favor of the respondent. A petition for sealing under this 23 section may be filed at any time.

24 (2) (a) A petition, records, and documents that have been 25 ordered sealed under subsection (1) and the petition for sealing

30 repealed on October 2, 2026, unless reviewed and saved from 31 repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

32 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public
33 necessity that petitions filed under ss. 741.30 and 741.301, 34 Florida Statutes, and all records and documents related to the 35 petitions be made confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1),
36 Florida Statutes, and s. 24(a), Article I of the State
37 Constitution unless the domestic violence petition was granted.
38 Persons who have been accused of domestic violence face barriers 39 to employment and other life opportunities, and knowledge that 40 they were so accused, although no injunction was granted, would 41 expose them to possible discrimination and public obloquy. It is 42 necessary that these petitions and related documents be made 43 confidential and exempt in order for such petitioners to have 44 the chance to continue their lives without such consequences
45 when no injunction was ever issued.

46 Section 3. This act shall take effect on the same date that 47 SB 1972 or similar legislation takes effect, if such legislation
48 is adopted in the same legislative session or an extension
49 thereof and becomes a law.
