 19 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

 21           Section 1.   Section 331.502, Florida Statutes, is created 22 to read:

23           331.502 Recovery of spaceflight assets.-

24           (1) As used in this section, the term:

25           (a) "Launch" has the same meaning as provided in 51 U.S.C.

26 50902.

27 (b) "Law enforcement agency" has the same meaning as
28 provided in s. 908.102.

29 (c) "Law enforcement officer" has the same meaning as
30 provided in s. 943.10.

31 (d) "Reentry" has the same meaning as provided in 51
32 U.S.C. 50902.

33 (e) "Spaceflight activities" and "spaceflight entity" have 34 the same meanings as provided in s. 331.501(1).

35 (f) "Spaceflight asset" means any item, or any part of an 36 item, owned by a spaceflight entity which is used in spaceflight
37 activities, including crewed and uncrewed capsules, launch
38 vehicles, parachutes and other landing aids, and any ancillary
39 equipment that was attached to the launch vehicle during launch,
40 orbit, or reentry.

41 (2) A spaceflight entity retains ownership over a
42 spaceflight asset following a launch or reentry, regardless of 43 the physical condition or location of a spaceflight asset,
44 unless or until such time the spaceflight entity expressly
45 indicates its intent to abandon the asset.

46 (3) (a) A person who locates any item reasonably
47 identifiable as a spaceflight asset must report the description
48 and location of the spaceflight asset to a law enforcement
49 agency having jurisdiction over the location.

50 (b) A law enforcement agency that receives a report under

51 this subsection must make a reasonable effort to identify the 52 owner of the spaceflight asset and promptly notify the owner of 53 any information relevant to the recovery of the spaceflight
54 asset.

55 (4) The owner of a spaceflight asset may enter private
56 property to recover a spaceflight asset if a law enforcement
57 officer authorizes such entry after determining that exigent
58 circumstances exist. Exigent circumstances may include, but are 59 not limited to, a determination that a failure to timely recover
60 the spaceflight asset may result in an immediate danger to 61 public safety or damage to, or destruction of, the spaceflight
62 asset.

63 (5) A person may not knowingly appropriate an item
64 reasonably identifiable as a spaceflight asset to his or her own
65 use, or to the use of any other person not entitled to the 66 spaceflight asset, or refuse to surrender a spaceflight asset to 67 a law enforcement officer or the owner upon demand. A person who 68 violates this subsection commits misappropriation of a
69 spaceflight asset, a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable
70 as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. A court shall order any 71 person convicted of violating this subsection to pay restitution
72 to the owner of the spaceflight asset if, as a result of the 73 misappropriation of a spaceflight asset, the asset is damaged or 74 cannot be recovered.

75 (6) This section does not limit liability protection for

76 private property under state or federal law.

77 Section 2. Paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) of 78 section 331.501, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

79 331.501 Spaceflight; informed consent.—

80 (1) For purposes of this section, the term:

81 (a) "Participant" means any spaceflight participant as 82 that term is defined in 51 U.S.C. s. 50902 ~~49 U.S.C. s. 70102~~.

83 (b) "Spaceflight activities" means launch services or 84 reentry services as those terms are defined in 51 U.S.C. s.
85 50902 ~~49 U.S.C. s. 70102~~.

86 Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2021.
