

House Joint Resolution

A joint resolution proposing the creation of Section 22 of Article III and an amendment to Section 10 of Article IV of the State Constitution to authorize the proposal and enactment of legislation by initiative and to provide for Supreme Court review of initiative petitions proposing legislation.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

That the following creation of Section 22 of Article III and the amendment of Section 10 of Article IV of the State Constitution is agreed to and shall be submitted to the electors of this state for approval or rejection at the next general election or at an earlier special election specifically authorized by law for that purpose:

ARTICLE III

LEGISLATURE

SECTION 22. Legislation by initiative.-

(a) The power to propose legislation by initiative is reserved to the people. The power may be invoked by filing with the custodian of state records a petition that contains a copy of the proposed legislation, which petition is signed by a number of electors in each of one half of the congressional districts of the state, and of the state as a whole, equal to

26 four percent of the votes cast in each such district, 27 respectively, and in the state as a whole in the previous 28 election in which presidential electors were chosen.

29 (b) Laws that provide for the number or assignment of 30 judges or the jurisdiction of courts, laws that the legislature
31 is prohibited from passing or must pass by an extraordinary
32 vote, and laws that change the boundaries of any municipality,
33 county, or special, legislative, or congressional district may 34 not be proposed by initiative.

35 (c) Legislation proposed by initiative must comply with 36 the requirements of this constitution applicable to laws enacted 37 by the legislature with respect to single subject and 38 prohibition of amendment by reference. Laws that are enacted by 39 initiative shall not be subject to the veto power of the 40 governor. Notwithstanding section 7 of this article, the 41 legislature may only amend or repeal legislation approved by 42 vote of the electors under this section by a four-fifths vote of 43 the membership of each house of the legislature within one year
44 after the effective date of such legislation or by a three-
45 fifths vote of the membership of each house of the legislature
46 one year or more after the effective date of such legislation.
47 The enacting clause of every law proposed by initiative shall 48 read: "Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Florida by 49 Initiative:".

50 (d) Legislation proposed by initiative shall be submitted

51 to the electors at the next general election held more than 52 ninety days after the initiative petition is filed with the 53 custodian of state records. The ballot must include a statement 54 expressing the chief purpose of the proposed legislation, in 55 clear and unambiguous language not exceeding 75 words in length, 56 and a statement of the economic impact of the proposed 57 legislation. If the legislation proposed by initiative is 58 approved by a majority of the electors voting in that election,
59 the legislation shall be effective on the first day of July
60 after the next regular session of the legislature.

61 (e) The legislature shall establish by general law, by 62 July 1, 2023, procedures to be used in invoking and approving
63 legislation proposed by initiative and for providing sufficient
64 prior public notice.

65 ARTICLE IV

66 EXECUTIVE

67 SECTION 10. Attorney General.—The attorney general shall,
68 as directed by general law, request the opinion of the justices
69 of the supreme court as to the validity of any initiative
70 petition proposing legislation circulated pursuant to Section 22
71 of Article III or any initiative petition circulated pursuant to 72 Section 3 of Article XI. The justices shall, subject to their 73 rules of procedure, permit interested persons to be heard on the 74 questions presented and shall render their written opinion no
75 later than April 1 of the year in which the initiative is to be
