 15 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

16
 17 Section 1. Section 456.064, Florida Statutes, is created
 18 to read:

19 456.064 Certain counseling services prohibited.—

20 (1) As used in this section, the term "professional 21 counselor" means a person who is licensed to provide 22 professional counseling or who provides counseling as part of 23 his or her professional practice under chapter 458, chapter 459, 24 chapter 490, or chapter 491, including, but not limited to, a
 25 medical practitioner, an osteopathic physician, a psychologist,

26 | a psychotherapist, a clinical social worker, a marriage and
27 | family therapist, and a mental health counselor.

28 | (2) A professional counselor may not provide counseling
29 | services to an individual younger than 18 years of age which
30 | include treatment involving reprimand, punishment, shame, or any
31 | other aversive technique intended to change an individual's
32 | gender identity or gender expression or reduce or eliminate an
33 | individual's sexual or romantic attraction or feelings toward a
34 | person of the same gender.

35 | (3) A professional counselor who violates this section
36 | engages in unprofessional conduct and is subject to disciplinary
37 | action by the department or the appropriate board.

38 | Section 2. Section 817.0346, Florida Statutes, is created
39 | to read:

40 | 817.0346 Prohibition against marketing of fraudulent
41 | counseling services.—

42 | (1) It is unlawful for any person to advertise or offer to
43 | provide counseling services to an individual younger than 18
44 | years of age which include efforts to change an individual's
45 | gender identity or gender expression or reduce or eliminate an
46 | individual's sexual or romantic attraction or feelings toward a
47 | person of the same gender.

48 | (2) This prohibition does not apply to counseling services
49 | that provide:

50 | (a) Support to an individual actively undergoing gender

51 transition; or

52 (b) Acceptance, support, and understanding of an 53 individual or that facilitate an individual's coping, social 54 support, and identity exploration and development, including 55 sexual orientation-neutral interventions to prevent or address 56 unlawful conduct or unsafe sexual practices, provided that the 57 goal of such counseling is not to change the individual's gender 58 identity or sexual orientation.

59 (3) A person who violates this section commits a felony of 60 the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s.
61 775.083, or s. 775.084.

62 Section 3. If any provision of this act or its application
63 to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity
64 does not affect other provisions or applications of the act
65 which can be given effect without the invalid provision or 66 application, and to this end the provisions of this act are 67 severable.

68 Section 4. This act shall take effect July 1, 2021.
