House Resolution

A resolution designating the week of November 14-20, 2021, as "Florida Storytelling Week."

WHEREAS, storytelling is a valuable method of sharing Florida folklore and contributes to the preservation of the history of our state, and

WHEREAS, storytelling embraces the heritage and oral tradition of diverse cultures within our state and enables all Floridians to celebrate the strength of community and the richness of diversity, and

WHEREAS, storytelling promotes literacy and character development among the youth of our state while encouraging mastery of the language arts and knowledge of the history and folklore of Florida as students learn, tell, and listen to stories in school or community settings, and

WHEREAS, storytelling fosters communication, tolerance, and understanding among Florida residents of every age and background, and

WHEREAS, the Florida Storytelling Association, Inc., consisting of storytellers, story listeners, and story lovers from all regions of the state, serves to preserve, perpetuate, and promote storytelling in Florida by educating storytellers and encouraging the art of storytelling, NOW, THEREFORE,
