35 Section 2. Section 817.5655, Florida Statutes, is created
36 to read:

37 817.5655 Unlawful use of DNA; penalties; exceptions.—

38 (1) As used in this section, the term:

39 (a) "Authorization" means the informed and written consent
40 of the person whose DNA is to be extracted or analyzed, or the 41 informed and written consent of the person's legal guardian or 42 authorized representative.

43 (b) "DNA analysis" means the medical and biological
44 examination and analysis of a person to identify the presence
45 and composition of genes in that person's body. The term
46 includes DNA typing and genetic testing.

47 (c) "DNA sample" means any human biological specimen from 48 which DNA can be extracted, or the DNA extracted from such 49 specimen.

50 (2) It is unlawful for a person to willfully, and without

51 authorization, collect or retain another person's DNA sample
52 with the intent to perform DNA analysis. A person who violates
53 this subsection commits a misdemeanor of the first degree,
54 punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

55 (3) It is unlawful for a person to willfully, and without
56 authorization, submit another person's DNA sample for DNA
57 analysis or to conduct or procure the conducting of another
58 person's DNA analysis. A person who violates this subsection
59 commits a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in 60 s. 775.082, s. 775.083 or s. 775.084.

61 (4) It is unlawful for a person to willfully, and without 62 authorization, disclose another person's DNA analysis results to 63 a third party. A person who violates this subsection commits a
64 felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s.
65 775.082, s. 775.083 or s. 775.084.

66 (5) Each instance of collection or retention, submission
67 or analysis or disclosure in violation of this section
68 constitutes a separate violation for which a separate penalty is 69 authorized.

70 (6) This section does not apply to a DNA sample, a DNA
71 analysis, or the results of a DNA analysis used for the purposes
72 of:

73 (a) Criminal investigation or prosecution;

74 (b) Determining paternity under s. 409.256 or s.
75 742.12(1); or

HB 833
