HB 889

1	A bill to be entitled
2	An act relating to nonprofit property tax exemptions;
3	amending s. 196.196, F.S.; specifying conditions under
4	which exempt property, upon receipt of specified types
5	of revenues, retains its exemption from ad valorem
6	taxation; defining the term "incidental use";
7	providing an effective date.
8
9	Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:
10
11	Section 1. Subsection (2) of section 196.196, Florida
12	Statutes, is amended to read:
13	196.196 Determining whether property is entitled to
14	charitable, religious, scientific, or literary exemption
15	(2) Only those portions of property used predominantly for
16	charitable, religious, scientific, or literary purposes are
17	shall be exempt. In no event may shall an incidental use of
18	property either qualify such property for an exemption or impair
19	the exemption of an otherwise exempt property. In order to
20	retain the exemption of an otherwise exempt property, the
21	revenue derived from the incidental use of the property must
22	support the charitable, religious, scientific, or literary
23	purposes for which the property is used. For purposes of this
24	section, the term "incidental use" means any use that is
25	ancillary, supportive, or subordinate to the predominant use and
