6 information.

7 3. A law enforcement agency shall disclose law enforcement
8 geolocation information in the following instances:

9 a. Upon a request from a state or federal law enforcement
10 agency;

11 b. When a person files a petition with the circuit court in 12 the jurisdiction where the agency having custody of the 13 requested law enforcement geolocation information is located 14 specifying the reasons for requesting such information and the 15 court, upon a showing of good cause, issues an order authorizing 16 the release of the law enforcement geolocation information. In 17 all cases in which the court releases law enforcement 18 geolocation information under this sub-subparagraph, such 19 information must be viewed or copied under the direct 20 supervision of the custodian of the record or his or her 21 designee; or

22 c. When law enforcement geolocation information is 23 requested for use in a criminal, civil, or administrative 24 proceeding. This sub-subparagraph does not prohibit a court in 25 such a criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, upon a 26 showing of good cause, from restricting or otherwise controlling 27 the disclosure of such information.
