2	An act relating to grandparent visitation rights;
3	amending s. 752.011, F.S.; creating a presumption for
4	maternal or paternal grandparent or stepgrandparent
5	visitation of a child under certain circumstances;
6	providing a burden for overcoming such presumption;
7	providing an effective date.
8
9	Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:
10
11	Section 1. Subsections (2) through (11) of section
12	752.011, Florida Statutes, are renumbered as subsections (3)
13	through (12), respectively, present subsections (4) and (5) are
14	amended, and a new subsection (2) is added to that section, to
15	read:
16	752.011 Petition for grandparent visitation with a minor
17	child.—A grandparent of a minor child whose parents are
18	deceased, missing, or in a persistent vegetative state, or whose
19	one parent is deceased, missing, or in a persistent vegetative
20	state and whose other parent has been convicted of a felony or
21	an offense of violence evincing behavior that poses a
22	substantial threat of harm to the minor child's health or
23	welfare, may petition the court for court-ordered visitation
24	with the grandchild under this section.
25	(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), if the court finds

26 that one parent of a child has been held criminally liable for 27 the death of the other parent of the child or civilly liable for 28 an intentional tort causing the death of the other parent of the 29 child, there is a presumption for granting reasonable visitation 30 with the petitioning grandparent or stepgrandparent if he or she is the parent of the child's deceased parent. This presumption 31 32 may only be overcome if the court finds that granting such visitation is not in the best interests of the child. 33

34 (5)-(4) In assessing the best interests interest of the 35 child under subsection (4)-(3), the court shall consider the 36 totality of the circumstances affecting the mental and emotional 37 well-being of the minor child, including:

(a) The love, affection, and other emotional ties existing between the minor child and the grandparent, including those resulting from the relationship that had been previously allowed by the child's parent.

(b) The length and quality of the previous relationship between the minor child and the grandparent, including the extent to which the grandparent was involved in providing regular care and support for the child.

(c) Whether the grandparent established ongoing personal contact with the minor child before the death of the parent, before the onset of the parent's persistent vegetative state, or before the parent was missing.
