26	501.2106 Non-medical solicitation; deceptive and unfair
27	trade practices
28	(1) As used in this section, the term:
29	(a) "Client" means a prospective customer, client, or
30	patron of non-medical professional services.
31	(b) "Non-medical solicitation" means a paid solicitation
32	for non-medical professional services which contains information
33	about a drug or device as defined in s. 499.003 and which is
34	directed to the public through television; radio; the Internet,
35	including a domain name; a newspaper or other periodical; an
36	outdoor advertising sign; or another written, electronic, or
37	recorded communication.
38	(c) "Person" has the same meaning as in s. 1.01(3).
39	(2) A person who submits or approves the submittal of a
40	non-medical solicitation for publication, broadcast, or
41	dissemination, or who pays for or otherwise sponsors a non-
42	medical solicitation, commits a deceptive and unfair trade
43	practice under this part if the solicitation, once published,
44	broadcast, or disseminated, does any of the following:
45	(a) Fails to clearly and conspicuously disclose at the
46	outset of the solicitation the phrase, "This is a paid
47	advertisement for non-medical services."
48	(b) Includes terminology implying that the advertisement
49	is a "medical alert," "health alert," "consumer alert," "public
50	service announcement," or similar public alert or announcement.

51	(c) Displays the logo, or a similar facsimile thereof, of
52	a federal or state governmental agency in a manner implying
53	affiliation with, or sponsorship by, a governmental agency.
54	(d) Includes terminology, including use of the term
55	"recall" when referring to a product, implying that the product
56	has been recalled when, in fact, the product has not been
57	recalled by a governmental agency or through agreement between a
58	manufacturer and a governmental agency.
59	(e) Fails to clearly and conspicuously disclose the
60	sponsor of the advertisement.
61	(f) Fails to clearly and conspicuously disclose the
62	individual or entity that will provide professional services to
63	persons responding to the advertisement or how those persons
64	will be referred to such individual or entity.
65	(g) Solicits clients who may allege injury from a
66	prescription drug approved or cleared by, or which is the
67	subject of a monograph authorized by, the United States Food and
68	Drug Administration and fails to clearly and conspicuously
69	disclose the following warning: "Do not stop taking a prescribed
70	medication without first consulting with your doctor.
71	Discontinuing a prescribed medication without your doctor's
72	advice can result in injury or death."
73	(h) Solicits clients who may allege injury from a
74	prescription drug or medical device approved or cleared by, or
75	which is the subject of a monograph authorized by, the United

76	States Food and Drug Administration and fails to clearly and
77	conspicuously disclose that the drug or medical device remains
78	approved by the United States Food and Drug Administration,
79	unless the product is recalled or withdrawn.
80	(i) Fails to present any disclosure required by this
81	subsection such that:
82	1. A written disclosure is clearly legible and, if
83	televised or displayed electronically, is displayed for
84	sufficient time to enable the viewer to easily see and fully
85	read the disclosure.
86	2. A spoken disclosure is plainly audible and clearly
87	intelligible.
88	Section 2. Effective October 1, 2022, section 877.025,
89	Florida Statutes, is created to read:
90	877.025 Solicitation of non-medical services; wrongful use
91	or disclosure of protected health information
92	(1) As used in this section, the term:
93	(a) "Person" has the same meaning as in s. 1.01(3).
94	(b) "Protected health information" has the same meaning as
95	provided in 45 C.F.R. s. 106.103.
96	(c) "Solicit" means to offer to provide professional
97	services by written, recorded, or electronic communication or by
98	in-person, telephone, or real-time electronic contact.
99	(2) A person may not use, cause to be used, obtain, sell,
100	transfer, or disclose to another person an individual's

101	protected health information, without that individual's written
102	authorization, to solicit professional services.
103	(3)(a) A person who violates subsection (2) commits a
104	deceptive and unfair trade practice subject to the penalties and
105	remedies provided in part II of chapter 501.
106	(b) A person who willfully and knowingly violates
107	subsection (2) commits a misdemeanor of the first degree,
108	punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.
109	(c) A person who willfully and knowingly violates
110	subsection (2) with intent to sell, transfer, or use protected
111	health information for financial gain commits a felony of the
112	second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083,
113	or s. 775.084, except that the term of imprisonment may not
114	exceed 10 years and the fine must be more than $10,000 but may
115	not exceed $250,000.
116	(4) This section does not apply to the disclosure of
117	protected health information to an attorney, or the attorney's
118	use of such protected health information, in any judicial or
119	administrative proceeding or any other use or disclosure
120	otherwise authorized or required by law.
121	Section 3. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this
122	act, this act shall take effect July 1, 2022.
