The Committee on Appropriations (Gruters) recommended the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Delete lines 316 - 625
and insert:
combination of the other forms of alimony, is insufficient.

(b) The amount of durational alimony is the amount determined to be the obligee's reasonable need or an amount not to exceed 35 percent of the difference between the parties' net incomes, whichever amount is less.

(c) In determining the length of an award of durational

11 alimony, the court shall reduce the length of an award of 12 durational alimony for the length of time during which the 13 obligor made temporary support payments to the obligee, either 14 voluntarily or pursuant to a court order, after the date of 15 filing of a petition for dissolution of marriage.

16 (d) In determining the extent to which alimony should be 17 granted because a supportive relationship exists or has existed 18 between the party seeking alimony and another person who is not 19 related by consanguinity or affinity at any time since 180 days 20 before the filing of the petition of dissolution of marriage, 21 the court shall consider all relevant factors presented 22 concerning the nature and extent of the supportive relationship 23 in question. The burden is on the obligor to prove by a 24 preponderance of the evidence that a supportive relationship 25 exists. If a supportive relationship is proven to exist, the 26 burden shifts to the obligee to disprove by a preponderance of 27 the evidence that the court should deny or reduce the initial 28 award of alimony. The court must make written findings of fact 29 concerning the circumstances of the supportive relationship, 30 including, but not limited to, the factors set forth in s.
31 61.14(1)(b)2.

32 (e) In the event that the obligor reaches full retirement
33 age as determined by the Social Security Administration, so long 34 as the obligor is older than 55 years of age, or the customary 35 retirement age for his or her profession before the end of the 36 durational period indicated by paragraph (a), the durational 37 alimony shall end on such retirement date if all of the 38 following conditions are met:

39 1. The obligor files a notice of retirement and intent to 797882

40 terminate alimony with the court and personally serves the 41 alimony recipient and his or her last known attorney of record, 42 if such attorney is still practicing in the same county, at 43 least 1 year before the date that the obligor's retirement is 44 intended to become effective.

45 2. The obligee has not contested the notice of retirement 46 and intent to terminate alimony according to the factors 47 specified in s. 61.14(12)(b) or the court has determined that 48 such factors do not apply. If the court makes any of the 49 findings specified in s. 61.14(12)(b), the court must consider 50 and make written findings regarding the factors listed in s.
51 61.14(12)(c) to determine whether to extend the length of the 52 alimony award as set forth in s. 61.08(8)(a).

53
54 However, if the obligor continues to work beyond his or her 55 retirement age as provided under this paragraph and earns active 56 gross income of more than 50 percent of the obligor's average 57 preretirement annual active gross income for the 3 years 58 preceding his or her retirement age, the court may extend 59 alimony until the durational limitations established in this 60 subsection have been satisfied or the obligor retires and 61 reduces his or her active gross income below the 50 percent
62 threshold established in this paragraph.

63 (9)(a) A party against whom alimony is sought who has 64 attained his or her full retirement age as determined by the 65 Social Security Administration before the adjudication of the 66 petition for dissolution of marriage may not be ordered to pay 67 bridge-the-gap, rehabilitative, or durational alimony, unless 68 the court determines that:

797882

69 1. As a result of the dissolution of marriage, the party 70 seeking alimony would have an income of less than 130 percent of 71 the federal poverty guidelines for a one-person household, as 72 published by the United States Department of Health and Human 73 Services, based on the income and investable assets available 74 after the dissolution is final, including any retirement assets 75 from which the obligee can access income without incurring early 76 withdrawal penalties;

77 2. The party seeking alimony would be left with the 78 inability to meet his or her basic needs and necessities of 79 life, including, but not limited to, housing, utilities, food, 80 and transportation; or

81 3. The party seeking alimony is the full-time in-home 82 caregiver to a fully and permanently mentally or physically 83 disabled child who is common to the parties, or the party is 84 permanently and mentally or physically disabled and unable to 85 provide for his or her own support, either partially or fully.

86 (b) However, if the obligor continues to work beyond his or 87 her retirement age as provided under this subsection and earns 88 active gross income of more than 50 percent of the obligor's
89 average preretirement annual active gross income for the 3 years 90 preceding his or her retirement age, the court may award
91 durational alimony until the durational limitations established 92 in subsection (8) have been satisfied or the obligor retires and 93 reduces his or her active gross income below the 50 percent
94 threshold established in this paragraph.

95 (10) Notwithstanding any other law, alimony may not be 96 awarded to a party who has a monthly net income that is equal to 97 or more than the other party's monthly net income.

797882

98 (11) Social security retirement benefits may not be imputed
99 to the obligor as demonstrated by a social security retirement 100 benefits entitlement letter unless those benefits are actually 101 being paid.

102 (12) If the obligee alleges that a physical disability has 103 impaired his or her capability to earn income, the obligee must 104 have qualified for benefits under the Social Security 105 Administration Disability Insurance Program or, in the event the 106 obligee is not eligible for the program, must demonstrate that 107 his or her disability meets the disability qualification
108 standards of the Social Security Administration Disability 109 Insurance Program.

110 ~~(8) Permanent alimony may be awarded to provide for the~~ 111 ~~needs and necessities of life as they were established during~~ 112 ~~the marriage of the parties for a party who lacks the financial~~ 113 ~~ability to meet his or her needs and necessities of life~~ 114 ~~following a dissolution of marriage. Permanent alimony may be~~ 115 ~~awarded following a marriage of long duration if such an award~~ 116 ~~is appropriate upon consideration of the factors set forth in~~ 117 ~~subsection (2), following a marriage of moderate duration if~~ 118 ~~such an award is appropriate based upon clear and convincing~~ 119 ~~evidence after consideration of the factors set forth in~~ 120 ~~subsection (2), or following a marriage of short duration if~~ 121 ~~there are written findings of exceptional circumstances. In~~ 122 ~~awarding permanent alimony, the court shall include a finding~~ 123 ~~that no other form of alimony is fair and reasonable under the~~ 124 ~~circumstances of the parties. An award of permanent alimony~~
125 ~~terminates upon the death of either party or upon the remarriage~~ 126 ~~of the party receiving alimony. An award may be modified or~~

797882

127 ~~terminated based upon a substantial change in circumstances or~~ 128 ~~upon the existence of a supportive relationship in accordance~~ 129 ~~with s. 61.14.~~

130 ~~(9) The award of alimony may not leave the payor with~~ 131 ~~significantly less net income than the net income of the~~ 132 ~~recipient unless there are written findings of exceptional~~ 133 ~~circumstances.~~

134 ~~(13) (a) (10) (a)~~ With respect to any order requiring the 135 payment of alimony entered on or after January 1, 1985, unless 136 ~~the provisions of paragraph (c) or paragraph (d) applies apply,~~ 137 the court shall direct in the order that the payments of alimony 138 be made through the appropriate depository as provided in s.
139 61.181.

140 (b) With respect to any order requiring the payment of 141 alimony entered before January 1, 1985, upon the subsequent 142 appearance~~7~~ on or after that date~~7~~ of one or both parties before 143 the court having jurisdiction for the purpose of modifying or 144 enforcing the order or in any other proceeding related to the 145 order~~7~~ or upon the application of either party, unless ~~the~~ 146 ~~provisions of paragraph (c) or paragraph (d) applies apply,~~ the 147 court shall modify the terms of the order as necessary to direct 148 that payments of alimony be made through the appropriate 149 depository as provided in s. 61.181.

150 (c) If there is no minor child, alimony payments need not 151 be directed through the depository.

152 (d)1. If there is a minor child of the parties and both 153 parties so request, the court may order that alimony payments 154 need not be directed through the depository. In this case, the 155 order of support must ~~shall~~ provide, or be deemed to provide,

797882

156 that either party may subsequently apply to the depository to 157 require that payments be made through the depository. The court 158 shall provide a copy of the order to the depository.

159 2. If ~~the provisions of~~ subparagraph 1. applies ~~apply~~, 160 either party may subsequently file with the depository an 161 affidavit alleging default or arrearages in payment and stating 162 that the party wishes to initiate participation in the 163 depository program. The party shall provide copies of the 164 affidavit to the court and the other party or parties. Fifteen 165 days after receipt of the affidavit, the depository shall notify 166 all parties that future payments shall be directed to the 167 depository.

168 3. In IV-D cases, the IV-D agency has ~~shall have~~ the same 169 rights as the obligee in requesting that payments be made 170 through the depository.

171 (14) The court shall apply this section to all petitions 172 for dissolution of marriage which have not been adjudicated 173 before July 1, 2022, and to any petitions for dissolution of 174 marriage filed on or after July 1, 2022.

175 Section 3. Paragraph (c) of subsection (2) and subsection 176 (3) of section 61.13, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

177 61.13 Support of children; parenting and time-sharing;
178 powers of court.—

179 (2)

180 (c) The court shall determine all matters relating to 181 parenting and time-sharing of each minor child of the parties in 182 accordance with the best interests of the child and in 183 accordance with the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and 184 Enforcement Act, except that modification of a parenting plan

797882

185 and time-sharing schedule requires a showing of a substantial, 186 material, and unanticipated change of circumstances.

187 1. It is the public policy of this state that each minor 188 child has frequent and continuing contact with both parents 189 after the parents separate or the marriage of the parties is 190 dissolved and to encourage parents to share the rights and 191 responsibilities, and joys, of childrearing. Unless otherwise 192 provided in this section or agreed to by the parties, there is a 193 presumption that equal time-sharing of a minor child is in the 194 best interests of the minor child who is common to the parties
195 ~~Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, there is no~~ 196 ~~presumption for or against the father or mother of the child or~~ 197 ~~for or against any specific time-sharing schedule~~ when creating 198 or modifying the parenting plan of the child.

199 2. The court shall order that the parental responsibility 200 for a minor child be shared by both parents unless the court 201 finds that shared parental responsibility would be detrimental 202 to the child. The following evidence creates a rebuttable 203 presumption of detriment to the child:

204 a. A parent has been convicted of a misdemeanor of the 205 first degree or higher involving domestic violence, as defined 206 in s. 741.28 and chapter 775;

207 b. A parent meets the criteria of s. 39.806(1)(d); or

208 c. A parent has been convicted of or had adjudication 209 withheld for an offense enumerated in s. 943.0435(1)(h)1.a., and 210 at the time of the offense:

211 (I) The parent was 18 years of age or older.

212 (II) The victim was under 18 years of age or the parent 213 believed the victim to be under 18 years of age.

797882

215 If the presumption is not rebutted after the convicted parent is 216 advised by the court that the presumption exists, shared 217 parental responsibility, including time-sharing with the child, 218 and decisions made regarding the child, may not be granted to 219 the convicted parent. However, the convicted parent is not 220 relieved of any obligation to provide financial support. If the 221 court determines that shared parental responsibility would be 222 detrimental to the child, it may order sole parental 223 responsibility and make such arrangements for time-sharing as 224 specified in the parenting plan as will best protect the child 225 or abused spouse from further harm. Whether or not there is a 226 conviction of any offense of domestic violence or child abuse or 227 the existence of an injunction for protection against domestic 228 violence, the court shall consider evidence of domestic violence 229 or child abuse as evidence of detriment to the child.

230 3. In ordering shared parental responsibility, the court 231 may consider the expressed desires of the parents and may grant 232 to one party the ultimate responsibility over specific aspects 233 of the child's welfare or may divide those responsibilities 234 between the parties based on the best interests of the child.
235 Areas of responsibility may include education, health care, and 236 any other responsibilities that the court finds unique to a 237 particular family.

238 4. The court shall order sole parental responsibility for a 239 minor child to one parent, with or without time-sharing with the 240 other parent if it is in the best interests of the minor child.

241 5. There is a rebuttable presumption against granting time-242 sharing with a minor child if a parent has been convicted of or

797882

243 had adjudication withheld for an offense enumerated in s.
244 943.0435(1)(h)1.a., and at the time of the offense:

245 a. The parent was 18 years of age or older.

246 b. The victim was under 18 years of age or the parent 247 believed the victim to be under 18 years of age.

248

249 A parent may rebut the presumption upon a specific finding in 250 writing by the court that the parent poses no significant risk 251 of harm to the child and that time-sharing is in the best 252 interests of the minor child. If the presumption is rebutted, 253 the court shall consider all time-sharing factors in subsection 254 (3) when developing a time-sharing schedule.

255 6. Access to records and information pertaining to a minor 256 child, including, but not limited to, medical, dental, and 257 school records, may not be denied to either parent. Full rights 258 under this subparagraph apply to either parent unless a court 259 order specifically revokes these rights, including any 260 restrictions on these rights as provided in a domestic violence 261 injunction. A parent having rights under this subparagraph has 262 the same rights upon request as to form, substance, and manner 263 of access as are available to the other parent of a child, 264 including, without limitation, the right to in-person 265 communication with medical, dental, and education providers.

266 (3) For purposes of establishing or modifying parental 267 responsibility and creating, developing, approving, or modifying 268 a parenting plan, including a time-sharing schedule, which 269 governs each parent's relationship with his or her minor child 270 and the relationship between each parent with regard to his or 271 her minor child, the best interest of the child shall be the 797882

272 primary consideration. A determination of parental 273 responsibility, a parenting plan, or a time-sharing schedule may 274 not be modified without a showing of a substantial, material, 275 and unanticipated change in circumstances and a determination 276 that the modification is in the best interests of the child. For 277 purposes of the modification of a parenting plan and time-
278 sharing schedule, a parent's permanent relocation to a residence 279 within 50 miles of the primary residence of the child is 280 presumed to be a substantial, material, and unanticipated change 281 in circumstances. Determination of the best interests of the 282 child shall be made by evaluating all of the factors affecting 283 the welfare and interests of the particular minor child and the 284 circumstances of that family, including, but not limited to:
285 (a) The demonstrated capacity and disposition of each 286 parent to facilitate and encourage a close and continuing 287 parent-child relationship, to honor the time-sharing schedule, 288 and to be reasonable when changes are required.
289 (b) The anticipated division of parental responsibilities 290 after the litigation, including the extent to which parental 291 responsibilities will be delegated to third parties.
292 (c) The demonstrated capacity and disposition of each 293 parent to determine, consider, and act upon the needs of the 294 child as opposed to the needs or desires of the parent.
295 (d) The length of time the child has lived in a stable, 296 satisfactory environment and the desirability of maintaining 297 continuity.
298 (e) The geographic viability of the parenting plan, with 299 special attention paid to the needs of school-age children and 300 the amount of time to be spent traveling to effectuate the

797882

301 parenting plan. This factor does not create a presumption for or 302 against relocation of either parent with a child.

303 (f) The moral fitness of the parents.

304 (g) The mental and physical health of the parents.

305 (h) The home, school, and community record of the child.

306 (i) The reasonable preference of the child, if the court 307 deems the child to be of sufficient intelligence, understanding, 308 and experience to express a preference.

309 (j) The demonstrated knowledge, capacity, and disposition 310 of each parent to be informed of the circumstances of the minor 311 child, including, but not limited to, the child's friends, 312 teachers, medical care providers, daily activities, and favorite 313 things.

314 (k) The demonstrated capacity and disposition of each 315 parent to provide a consistent routine for the child, such as 316 discipline, and daily schedules for homework, meals, and 317 bedtime.

318 (l) The demonstrated capacity of each parent to communicate 319 with and keep the other parent informed of issues and activities 320 regarding the minor child, and the willingness of each parent to 321 adopt a unified front on all major issues when dealing with the 322 child.

323 (m) Evidence of domestic violence, sexual violence, child 324 abuse, child abandonment, or child neglect, regardless of 325 whether a prior or pending action relating to those issues has 326 been brought. If the court accepts evidence of prior or pending 327 actions regarding domestic violence, sexual violence, child 328 abuse, child abandonment, or child neglect, the court must 329 specifically acknowledge in writing that such evidence was

797882

330 considered when evaluating the best interests of the child.

331 (n) Evidence that either parent has knowingly provided 332 false information to the court regarding any prior or pending
333 action regarding domestic violence, sexual violence, child 334 abuse, child abandonment, or child neglect.

335 (o) The particular parenting tasks customarily performed by 336 each parent and the division of parental responsibilities before 337 the institution of litigation and during the pending litigation, 338 including the extent to which parenting responsibilities were 339 undertaken by third parties.

340 (p) The demonstrated capacity and disposition of each 341 parent to participate and be involved in the child's school and 342 extracurricular activities.

343 (q) The demonstrated capacity and disposition of each 344 parent to maintain an environment for the child which is free 345 from substance abuse.

346 (r) The capacity and disposition of each parent to protect 347 the child from the ongoing litigation as demonstrated by not 348 discussing the litigation with the child, not sharing documents 349 or electronic media related to the litigation with the child, 350 and refraining from disparaging comments about the other parent 351 to the child.

352 (s) The developmental stages and needs of the child and the 353 demonstrated capacity and disposition of each parent to meet the 354 child's developmental needs.

355 (t) Any other factor that is relevant to the determination 356 of a specific parenting plan, including the time-sharing 357 schedule.

358 Section 4. Paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section

797882

359 61.14, Florida Statutes, is amended, and paragraph (c) is added 360 to subsection (11) of that section, and subsections (12), (13), 361 and (14) are added to that section, to read:

362 61.14 Enforcement and modification of support, maintenance, 363 or alimony agreements or orders.—

364 (1)

365 (b)1. The court may reduce or terminate an award of alimony
366 or order reimbursement to the obligor for any amount the court 367 determines is equitable upon specific written findings by the 368 court that since the granting of a divorce and the award of 369 alimony, a supportive relationship exists or has existed between 370 the obligee and another a person at any time during the 180 days 371 before the filing of a petition for modification of alimony with 372 whom the obligee resides. On the issue of whether alimony should 373 be reduced or terminated under this paragraph, the burden is on 374 the obligor to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that a 375 supportive relationship exists or existed. If a supportive 376 relationship is proven to exist or have existed, the burden 377 shifts to the obligee to disprove, by a preponderance of the 378 evidence, that the court should terminate an existing award of 379 alimony.

380 2. In determining the extent to which whether an existing 381 award of alimony should be reduced or terminated because of an 382 alleged supportive relationship between an obligee and a person 383 who is not related by consanguinity or affinity and with whom 384 the obligee resides, the court must make written findings of 385 fact concerning the nature and the extent of the supportive 386 relationship in question and the circumstances of the supportive 387 relationship, including, but not limited to, the following

797882

388 ~~factors shall elicit the nature and extent of the relationship~~ 389 ~~in question. The court shall give consideration, without~~ 390 ~~limitation, to circumstances, including, but not limited to, the~~ 391 ~~following, in determining the relationship of an obligee to~~ 392 ~~another person:~~

393 a. The extent to which the obligee and the other person 394 have held themselves out as a married couple by engaging in 395 conduct such as using the same last name, using a common mailing 396 address, referring to each other in terms such as "my husband" 397 or "my wife," or otherwise conducting themselves in a manner 398 that evidences a permanent supportive relationship.

399 b. The period of time that the obligee has resided with the 400 other person in a permanent place of abode.

401 c. The extent to which the obligee and the other person 402 have pooled their assets or income or otherwise exhibited 403 financial interdependence.

404 d. The extent to which the obligee or the other person has 405 supported the other, in whole or in part.

406 e. The extent to which the obligee or the other person has 407 performed valuable services for the other.

408 f. The extent to which the obligee or the other person has 409 performed valuable services for the other's company or employer.

410 g. Whether the obligee and the other person have worked 411 together to create or enhance anything of value.

412 h. Whether the obligee and the other person have jointly 413 contributed to the purchase of any real or personal property.

414 i. Evidence in support of a claim that the obligee and the 415 other person have an express agreement regarding property 416 sharing or support.

797882

417 j. Evidence in support of a claim that the obligee and the 418 other person have an implied agreement regarding property
419 sharing or support.

420 k. Whether the obligee and the other person have provided 421 support to the children of one another, regardless of any legal 422 duty to do so.

423 3. This paragraph does not abrogate the requirement that 424 every marriage in this state be solemnized under a license, does 425 not recognize a common law marriage as valid, and does not 426 recognize a de facto marriage. This paragraph recognizes only 427 that relationships do exist that provide economic support 428 equivalent to a marriage and that alimony terminable on 429 remarriage may be reduced or terminated upon the establishment 430 of equivalent equitable circumstances as described in this 431 paragraph. The existence of a conjugal relationship, though it 432 may be relevant to the nature and extent of the relationship, is 433 not necessary for the application of the provisions of this 434 paragraph.

435 (11)

436 (c) An obligor's subsequent remarriage or cohabitation does 437 not constitute a basis for either party to seek a modification 438 of an alimony award.

439 (12) (a) Up to 12 months before seeking to terminate alimony 440 as provided under this section, an obligor may file a notice of 441 retirement and intent to terminate alimony with the court and 442 shall personally serve the obligee and his or her last known 443 attorney of record, if such attorney is still practicing in the 444 same county, with such notice.

445 (b) The obligee shall have 20 days after the date of 797882

446 service of the notice to request the court to enter findings 447 that as of the date of filing of the notice:

448 1. The reduction or termination of alimony would result in 449 any of the following:

450 a. The obligee's income would be less than 130 percent of 451 the federal poverty guidelines for a one-person household, as 452 published by the United States Department of Health and Human 453 Services, based on the obligee's income and investable assets, 454 including any retirement assets from which the obligee can 455 access income without incurring early withdrawal penalties.

456 b. The obligee would be left with the inability to meet the 457 obligee's basic needs and necessities of life, including, but 458 not limited to, housing, utilities, food, and transportation.

459 c. A violation of the terms of the marital settlement 460 agreement between the parties because the marital settlement 461 agreement either does not allow for modification or termination 462 of the alimony award or the proposed reduction in alimony does 463 not comply with applicable terms for modification of alimony 464 specified in the agreement;

465 2. The obligee is the full-time in-home caregiver to a 466 fully and permanently mentally or physically disabled child who 467 is common to the parties; or

468 3. The obligee is permanently mentally or physically 469 disabled and unable to provide for his or her own support, 470 either partially or fully.

471 (c) If the court makes any of the findings specified in 472 paragraph (b), the court must consider and make written findings 473 regarding the following factors when deciding whether to reduce 474 either the amount or duration of alimony:

797882

- 475 1. The duration of the marriage.
- 476 2. The financial resources of the obligee, including the 477 nonmarital and marital assets and liabilities distributed to the 478 obligee, as well as the obligee's role in conserving or 479 depleting the marital assets distributed at the dissolution of 480 marriage.
- 481 3. The sources of income available to the obligee, 482 including income available to the obligee through investments of 483 any asset, including retirement assets from which the obligee 484 can access income without incurring early withdrawal penalties.
- 485 4. The effort and sacrifices of time and leisure necessary 486 for the obligor to continue to provide such alimony and 487 consideration of the presumption that the obligor has a right to 488 retire when attaining full retirement age as per the Social 489 Security Administration.
- 490 5. The age and health of the obligor.
- 491 6. The terms of the marital settlement agreement between 492 the parties which govern modification of alimony.
- 493 (d) If the court does not make any of the findings 494 specified in paragraph (b), the alimony award amount shall 495 decrease by 25 percent on the date the obligor reaches 65 years 496 of age or 1 year after the date on which the notice of 497 retirement and intent to terminate alimony is filed, whichever 498 occurs later, and shall continue to decrease by 25 percent each 499 year thereafter until the date the obligor reaches 68 years of 500 age or 4 years after the date on which the notice is filed, 501 whichever occurs later, at which time alimony shall terminate.
- 502 (e) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a)-(d), if the obligor 503 continues to work beyond full retirement age as determined by

797882

504 the United States Social Security Administration or beyond the 505 reasonable retirement age for his or her profession or line of 506 work as determined in paragraph (f), whichever occurs earlier, 507 and earns active gross income of more than 50 percent of the 508 obligor's average preretirement annual active gross income for 509 the 3 years preceding his or her retirement age, actual 510 retirement date, or reasonable retirement age, as applicable, 511 the court may extend alimony until the obligor retires and 512 reduces his or her active gross income below the 50 percent 513 active gross income threshold established under this paragraph.

514 (f) If an obligor, so long as he or she is older than 55 515 years of age, seeks to retire at an age that is
