SUMMARY ANALYSIS

HB 567 passed the House on March 4, 2022, as CS/SB 1006.

Current law provides 43 state designations such as the state pie, state fruit, state beverage, and state honey. Florida does not, however, have a designation for a state dessert.

The bill designates the strawberry shortcake with natural Florida dairy topping as the official Florida state dessert.

This bill does not appear to have a fiscal impact on state or local governments.

The bill was approved by the Governor on March 7, 2022, ch. 2022-12, and will become effective on July 1, 2022.

I. SUBSTANTIVE INFORMATION

A. EFFECT OF CHANGES:

Background

State Emblems

Chapter 15, F.S., designates official state emblems. It contains 43 state designations including the state pie, state fruit, state beverage, and state honey.<sup>1</sup> Current law does not contain a designation for a state dessert.

Six states including Delaware, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Missouri, and South Dakota have designated an official state dessert.<sup>2</sup> Other states have an official state pie, such as Florida's adoption of the Key Lime Pie in 2006 and Texas's adoption of the Pecan Pie in 2013.<sup>3</sup> In 2016, Alabama designated the Lane Cake as the official state cake.<sup>4</sup>

Strawberry Industry

Florida produces 12 percent of the United States value of strawberries annually, valued at $307 million.<sup>5</sup> Strawberries are the second highest valued of the berry, potato, vegetable, and watermelon crops in Florida.<sup>6</sup>

There are approximately 8,000 acres of strawberries grown in Florida and it is the second largest producing region in the United States. Plant City, Florida is known as the Winter Strawberry Capital of the World and is the dominate region in the U.S. that produces strawberries in the winter.<sup>7</sup>

Effect of the Bill

The bill designates strawberry shortcake with natural Florida dairy topping as the official state dessert of Florida.
