Representative Campbell offered the following:

Amendment (with title amendment)

Between lines 149 and 150, insert:

Section 3. (1) The Office of Program Policy Analysis and Government Accountability shall study and monitor the effects of detention care on the mental and physical health, job placement, recidivism rates, socioeconomic status, and educational attainment of such juveniles after their release. The study shall follow a representative group of juveniles over a 10-year period beginning when they enter the system. The study must compare how different sentences and different amounts of time in various types of care within the system can affect these 14 juveniles' futures across various demographics. At the 15 conclusion of the study, the office shall submit a report

 16 containing its findings and any recommendations to improve 17 policies and practices relating to juvenile detention to the 18 Governor, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the 19 House of Representatives.

20 (2) As used in this section, the term "representative 21 group" means a sample group that is truly representative of the 22 juveniles within the system, including, but not limited to,
 23 racially, ethnically, linguistically, and socioeconomically and 24 in terms of sexual orientation, gender, religion, legal 25 residency status, and disability.
