Amendment No. 1

Amendment (with title amendment)

Remove everything after the enacting clause and insert:

Section 1. Section 381.00318, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

381.00318  Complaints and investigations regarding private employer COVID-19 vaccination, testing, or facial covering mandates; public records exemption.—

(1)(a) An employee complaint alleging a private employer's violation of s. 381.00317 regarding employer COVID-19 vaccination policies or practices, and all information relating to an investigation of such complaint, held by the Department of Legal Affairs is confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1) and...
s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution until the investigation is completed or ceases to be active. For purposes of this subsection, an investigation is considered "active" while such investigation is being conducted by the department with a reasonable good faith belief that it may lead to a determination of whether there was a violation of s. 381.00317. An investigation does not cease to be active if the department is proceeding with reasonable dispatch and there is a good faith belief that action may be initiated by the department.

(b)(2) After an investigation is completed or ceases to be active, information in records relating to the investigation remains confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution if disclosure of that information would do any of the following:

1. (a) Jeopardize the integrity of another active investigation.
2. (b) Reveal medical information about an employee.
3. (c) Reveal information regarding an employee's religious beliefs.

(c)(3) Information made confidential and exempt under this subsection may be released to another governmental entity in the furtherance of that entity's lawful duties and responsibilities.
Amendment No. 1

(d)(4) This subsection section does not prohibit the disclosure of information in an aggregated format.

(e)(5) This subsection section shall stand repealed on October 2, 2023.

(2)(a) A complaint alleging a business entity's, a governmental entity's, or an educational institution's violation of s. 381.00316 or s. 381.00319, and all information relating to an investigation of such complaint, held by the Department of Health or the Department of Legal Affairs is confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution until the investigation is completed or ceases to be active. For purposes of this subsection, an investigation is considered "active" while such investigation is being conducted by the Department of Health or the Department of Legal Affairs with a reasonable good faith belief that it may lead to a determination of whether there was a violation of s. 381.00316 or s. 381.00319. An investigation does not cease to be active if the Department of Health or the Department of Legal Affairs is proceeding with reasonable dispatch and there is a good faith belief that action may be initiated by the Department of Health or the Department of Legal Affairs.

(b) After an investigation is completed or ceases to be active, information in records relating to the investigation remains confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a),
Art. I of the State Constitution if disclosure of that information would do any of the following:

1. Jeopardize the integrity of another active investigation.

2. Reveal medical information about an individual.

3. Reveal information regarding an individual's religious beliefs.

(c) Information made confidential and exempt under this subsection may be released to another governmental entity in the furtherance of that entity's or institution's lawful duties and responsibilities.

(d) This subsection does not prohibit the disclosure of information in an aggregated format.

(e) This subsection is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and shall stand repealed on October 2, 2028, unless reviewed and saved from repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity that a complaint alleging a business entity's, a governmental entity's, or an educational institution's violation of s. 381.00316, Florida Statutes, or s. 381.00319, Florida Statutes, and all information relating to an investigation of such complaint, held by the Department of Health or the Department of Legal Affairs be made confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, and s. 24(a), Article I of the State Constitution until the investigation is completed or ceases to be active. The Legislature further finds that it is a public necessity to maintain the confidential and exempt status of information that would jeopardize the integrity of another active investigation, reveal medical information about an individual, or reveal information regarding an individual's religious beliefs after an investigation is completed or ceases to be active. Protection of such information is required to safeguard an individual's private information regarding medical information or religious beliefs and to ensure the integrity of an active investigation, if applicable.

Section 3. This act shall take effect on the same date that HB 1013 or similar legislation takes effect, if such legislation is adopted in the same legislative session or an extension thereof and becomes law.

-------------------------------

T I T L E  A M E N D M E N T

Remove everything before the enacting clause and insert: An act relating to public records; amending s. 381.00318, F.S.; providing an exemption from public records requirements for certain information held by the Department of Health or the Department of Legal Affairs; authorizing the disclosure of such information under certain circumstances; providing for future legislative review and repeal of the exemption; providing a statement of public necessity; providing a contingent effective date.
Amendment No. 1