12 department at the time of transmitting the recorded licenses on 13 the forms to be prescribed and furnished by the department. If 14 during any month no marriage licenses are issued or returned, 15 the county court judge or clerk of the circuit court shall 16 report such fact to the department upon forms prescribed and 17 furnished by the department.
18   Section 10. Section 382.023, Florida Statutes, is amended
19 to read:
20   382.023 Department to receive dissolution-of-marriage
21 records; fees.—Clerks of the circuit courts shall collect for 22 their services at the time of the filing of a final judgment of 23 dissolution of marriage a fee of up to $10.50, of which 43
24 percent shall be retained by the clerk of the circuit court as a
25 part of the cost in the cause in which the judgment is granted.
26 The remaining 57 percent shall be remitted to the Department of 27 Revenue for deposit to the Department of Health to defray part 28 of the cost of maintaining the dissolution-of-marriage records.
29 A record of each and every judgment of dissolution of marriage
30 granted by the court during the preceding calendar month, giving 31 names of parties and such other data as required by forms
32 prescribed by the department, shall be electronically
33 transmitted to the department weekly, on or before the 10th day
34 of each month, along with an accounting of the funds remitted to
