5 insert:

6 (7) MOTORCYCLES.—In an action involving a motorcycle and 7 alleging injuries received by a claimant, and where the claimant
8 was at the time of the injury in compliance with s. 316.211,
9 whether the claimant was or was not wearing protective headgear
10 is not admissible as evidence and shall not be considered in the 11 apportionment of fault or causation, and the trier of fact shall 12 not consider whether the claimant was or was not wearing 13 protective headgear. The trial judge shall appropriately

14 instruct the jury that the lack of protective headgear may not 15 be considered in the apportionment of fault or causation.
