4 Remove lines 69-95 and insert:

5 (1) For the purposes of this section, the term "gender
6 clinical interventions" means surgical procedures that alter
7 internal or external physical traits for the purpose of 8 affirming a person's perception of his or her sex if that
9 perception is inconsistent with the person's sex at birth.

10 (a) The term includes, but is not limited to, sex
11 reassignment surgeries or any other surgical procedures that 12 alter primary or secondary sexual characteristics.

13 (b) The term does not include:

Amendment No.

14 1. Treatment provided by a physician who, in his or her
15 good faith clinical judgment, performs procedures upon, or 16 provides therapies to, a minor born with a medically verifiable
17 genetic disorder of sexual development, including the following:

18 a. External biological sex characteristics that are 19 unresolvably ambiguous.

20 b. A disorder of sexual development, in which the 21 physician has determined through genetic or biochemical testing
22 that the minor does not have normal sex chromosome structure,
23 sex steroid hormone production, or sex steroid hormone action
24 for a male or female.

25 2. Treatment of any infection, injury, disease, or
26 disorder caused or exacerbated by the performance of gender
27 clinical interventions regardless of whether such interventions
28 were performed in accordance with state or federal law.

29 3. Puberty blocking, hormone, and hormone antagonistic
30 therapies.
