 9           future legislative review and repeal of the exemption;
 10          providing a statement of public necessity; providing 11          an effective date.

12
 13 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:
 14

15           Section 1. Paragraph (k) is added to subsection (5) of 16           section 119.071, Florida Statutes, to read:

17           119.071 General exemptions from inspection or copying of 18           public records.—

19           (5) OTHER PERSONAL INFORMATION.—

20           (k)1. For purposes of this paragraph, the term:

21           a. "Identification and location information" means the:

22           (I) Home address, telephone number, and date of birth of a 23           servicemember, and the telephone number associated with a 24           servicemember's personal communication device.

HB 313

25 (II) Home address, telephone number, date of birth, and 26 place of employment of the spouse or dependent of a 27 servicemember, and the telephone number associated with such 28 spouse's or dependent's personal communication device.

29 (III) Name and location of a school attended by the spouse 30 of a servicemember or a school or day care facility attended by 31 a dependent of a servicemember.

32 b. "Servicemember" means a current or former member of the 33 Armed Forces of the United States, a reserve component of the 34 Armed Forces of the United States, or the National Guard, who 35 served after September 11, 2001.

36 2. Identification and location information held by an 37 agency is exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the 38 State Constitution if a servicemember submits to an agency that 39 has custody of the identification and location information:

40 a. A written request to exempt the identification and 41 location information from public disclosure; and

42 b. A written statement that he or she has made reasonable
43 efforts to protect the identification and location information
44 from being accessible through other means available to the 45 public.

46 3. This exemption applies to identification and location
47 information held by an agency before, on, or after the effective 48 date of this exemption.

49 4. This paragraph is subject to the Open Government Sunset

50 Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and shall stand repealed
51 on October 2, 2028, unless reviewed and saved from repeal
52 through reenactment by the Legislature.

53       Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public 54 necessity that identification and location information of 55 current or former members of the Armed Forces of the United 56 States, a reserve component of the Armed Forces of the United 57 States, or the National Guard, who served after September 11, 58 2001, and their spouses and dependents, that is held by an 59 agency be made exempt from s. 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, and 60 s. 24(a), Article I of the State Constitution. Servicemembers 61 perform among the most critical, most effective, and most 62 dangerous operations in defense of our nation's freedom.
63 Terrorist groups have threatened servicemembers and their 64 families and have encouraged terrorist sympathizers to harm
65 servicemembers and their families within the United States. One
66 terrorist group has allegedly gathered the photographs and home 67 addresses of servicemembers from public sources to create and 68 publish a list of servicemembers in order to make such persons
69 vulnerable to an act of terrorism. The Legislature finds that 70 allowing continued public access to the identification and 71 location information of current or former servicemembers and 72 their families jeopardizes the safety of servicemembers, their 73 spouses, and their dependents. The Legislature finds that 74 protecting the safety and security of current or former members

75 of the Armed Forces of the United States, a reserve component of 76 the Armed Forces of the United States, or the National Guard, 77 who served after September 11, 2001, and their spouses and 78 dependents, outweighs any public benefit that may be derived
79 from the public disclosure of the identification and location
80 information.

81 Section 3. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.
