

1 A bill to be entitled
 2 An act relating to public records; amending s.
 3 119.071, F.S.; providing definitions; providing an 4 exemption from public records requirements for 5 identification and location information of current and 6 former military personnel and their spouses and 7 dependents; providing applicability; providing for 8 future legislative review and repeal of the exemption;
 9 providing a statement of public necessity; providing 10 an effective date.

11
 12 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

13
 14 Section 1. Paragraph (k) is added to subsection (5) of 15 section 119.071, Florida Statutes, to read:

16 119.071 General exemptions from inspection or copying of 17 public records.—

18 (5) OTHER PERSONAL INFORMATION.—

19 (k)1. For purposes of this paragraph, the term:

20 a. "Identification and location information" means the:

21 (I) Home addresses, telephone numbers, and dates of birth
 22 of current and former military personnel, and the telephone 23 numbers associated with the personal communication devices of 24 current and former military personnel.

25 (II) Home addresses, telephone numbers, and dates of birth
26 of the spouses and dependents of current and former military 27 personnel, and the telephone numbers associated with the 28 personal communication devices of such spouses and dependents.

29 (III) Names and locations of schools attended by the 30 spouses of current and former military personnel and schools or 31 day care facilities attended by dependents of current and former 32 military personnel.

33 b. "Military personnel" means persons employed by the 34 United States Department of Defense who are authorized to access 35 information that is deemed "secret" or "top secret" by the 36 Federal Government or who are servicemembers of a special 37 operations force.

38 c. "Special operations force" has the same meaning as 39 provided in s. 943.10(22).

40 2. Identification and location information held by an 41 agency is exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the 42 State Constitution if the current or former military personnel 43 member submits to an agency that has custody of the 44 identification and location information:

45 a. A written request to exempt the identification and 46 location information from public disclosure; and

47 b. A written statement that he or she has made reasonable
48 efforts to protect the identification and location information

49 from being accessible through other means available to the 50 public.

51 3. This exemption applies to identification and location
52 information held by an agency before, on, or after the effective 53 date of this exemption.

54 4. This paragraph is subject to the Open Government Sunset
55 Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and shall stand repealed
56 on October 2, 2028, unless reviewed and saved from repeal
57 through reenactment by the Legislature.

58 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public 59 necessity that identification and location information of 60 current and former military personnel, and their spouses and 61 dependents, that is held by an agency be made exempt from s.
62 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, and s. 24(a), Article I of the 63 State Constitution. Military personnel perform among the most 64 critical, most effective, and most dangerous operations in 65 defense of our nation's freedom. Terrorist groups have 66 threatened military personnel and their families and have 67 encouraged terrorist sympathizers to harm military personnel and 68 their families within the United States. One terrorist group has 69 allegedly gathered the photographs and home addresses of 70 military personnel from public sources to create and publish a
71 list of military personnel in order to make such persons
72 vulnerable to an act of terrorism. The Legislature finds that 73 allowing continued public access to the identification and

74 location information of current and former military personnel
75 and their families jeopardizes the safety of these personnel,
76 their spouses, and their dependents. The Legislature finds that 77 protecting the safety and security of current and former 78 military personnel, and their spouses and dependents, outweighs
79 any public benefit that may be derived from the public
80 disclosure of the identification and location information.

81 Section 3. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.
