SUMMARY ANALYSIS

A "special district" is a unit of local government created for a particular purpose, with jurisdiction to operate within a limited geographic boundary. Special districts are created by general law, special act, local ordinance, or by rule of the Governor and Cabinet. A "dependent special district" is a special district subject to significant control by the governing body of a single county or municipality.

The Lake Padgett Estates Independent Special District (District) is an independent special district created in 2006 by special act. The District encompasses approximately 775 acres of land in Pasco County. The District's board is composed of five members serving two-year terms. Members of the board must be United States citizens and qualified electors who live in the District. If a vacancy occurs during the term of office, the remaining members of the board fill each vacancy by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term.

The bill increases the term of District board members from two years to four years, beginning with members elected during the 2024 general election. The bill provides that two members of the board elected during the 2024 general election will serve a two-year term for the purpose of creating staggered terms. All members elected beginning in the 2026 general election shall hold office for a four-year term until their successors are elected.

Present Situation

Special Districts

A “special district” is a unit of local government created for a particular purpose, with jurisdiction to operate within a limited geographic boundary.¹ A special district may be created by general law, special act, local ordinance, or rule of the Governor and Cabinet.² A special district has only those powers expressly provided by, or reasonably implied from, the authority provided in the district’s charter.³ Special districts provide specific municipal services in addition to, or in place of, those provided by a municipality or county.⁴

A “dependent special district” is a special district meeting at least one of the following criteria:

- The membership of the district’s governing body is identical to the governing body of a single county or municipality;
- All members of the district’s governing body are appointed by the governing body of a single county or municipality;
- Members of the district’s governing body are removable at will by the governing body of a single county or municipality; or
- The district’s budget is subject to approval by the governing body of a single county or municipality.⁵

An “independent special district” is any district that is not a dependent special district or one that includes more than one county unless the district lies wholly within a single municipality.⁶
