

1 A bill to be entitled

2 An act for the relief of Jamiyah Mitchell, Latricia
3 Mitchell, and Jerald Mitchell by the South Broward
4 Hospital District; providing an appropriation to 5 compensate Jamiyah Mitchell for injuries and damages
6 sustained as a result of the negligence of the South
7 Broward Hospital District; providing a limitation on 8 the payment of compensation and attorney fees,
9 lobbying fees, and other similar expenses; providing 10 an effective date.

11
12 WHEREAS, on October 8, 2008, Latricia Mitchell, who was 13 pregnant, went to Memorial Hospital West, operated by the South
14 Broward Hospital District, with pain, vaginal bleeding, and 15 contractions, and

16 WHEREAS, fetal monitoring tracings, which began at 4:33
17 p.m., reflected a fetal tachycardia, minimal fetal heart rate 18 variability, and the absence of accelerations, and

19 WHEREAS, at approximately 5:54 p.m., Mrs. Mitchell was 20 admitted to Memorial Hospital West, and

21 WHEREAS, medical records reflect that, at 6:29 p.m., 22 continued fetal tachycardia, minimal fetal heart rate
23 variability, the absence of accelerations, and variable
24 decelerations were present, and

25 WHEREAS, the minimal variability and absence of

CS/HB 6015

2023

26 acceleration observations continued until approximately 8:44
27 p.m., when Jamiyah Mitchell was finally delivered by caesarean 28 section, and

29 WHEREAS, the hospital's records indicate that the caesarean
30 section was performed due to a nonreassuring fetal heart rate, 31 and

32 WHEREAS, upon Jamiyah's birth, there was a presence of 33 meconium-stained fluids, a sign of fetal asphyxiation, and her
34 Apgar score was 3 out of 10, and

35 WHEREAS, Jamiyah suffered a left hemisphere stroke, began 36 having seizures immediately at birth, and was cared for in the 37 neonatal intensive care unit for 7 days after her birth for 38 respiratory distress and seizure activity, and

39 WHEREAS, Jamiyah was also diagnosed with fetal hypoxic-
40 ischemic encephalopathy, and magnetic resonance imaging of her
41 brain at 4 days old showed objective findings of a stroke in the 42 left hemisphere of the brain and a hemorrhage of the occipital
43 horn of the right lateral ventricle, and

44 WHEREAS, Jamiyah is now a teenager and while she is able to 45 walk and function in most aspects of everyday life in a manner
46 typical for an average girl her age, she suffers from attention-
47 deficit/hyperactivity disorder and has a learning disability,
48 and

49 WHEREAS, on or about October 10, 2013, Mrs. Mitchell and 50 Jerald Mitchell, Mrs. Mitchell's spouse and Jamiyah's father,

51 | individually and on behalf of Jamiyah, filed a legal action in
 52 | the Circuit Court of the 17th Judicial Circuit, in and for
 53 | Broward County, Case No. 14-005044, against the South Broward
 54 | Hospital District and other parties, alleging, in part,
 55 | negligence of the district in failing to establish adequate
 56 | protocols and procedures for the admission, monitoring,
 57 | evaluation, testing, and referral to medical specialists of
 58 | mothers presenting with risk factors for fetal distress,
 59 | including timely caesarean section and appropriate oxygenation
 60 | and ventilation, and

61 |       WHEREAS, on or about July 3, 2019, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell,
 62 | individually and as legal guardians of Jamiyah, and the South
 63 | Broward Hospital District entered into a settlement agreement,
 64 | and

65 |       WHEREAS, the settlement agreement provides for the payment
 66 | of $200,000 by the South Broward Hospital District to Mr. and
 67 | Mrs. Mitchell, individually and as legal guardians of Jamiyah,
 68 | pursuant to the statutory limit under s. 768.28, Florida
 69 | Statutes; the entry of a consent judgment in the amount of
 70 | $995,000 which limits execution to $795,000; and the South
 71 | Broward Hospital District's agreement that it supports a claim
 72 | bill in the amount of $795,000, NOW, THEREFORE,

74 | Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

75 |

76           Section 1. The facts stated in the preamble to this act
 77 are found and declared to be true.

78           Section 2. The South Broward Hospital District is 79 authorized and directed to appropriate from funds not otherwise 80 encumbered and to draw a warrant in the sum of $795,000 payable 81 to Mikel Taft, Trustee of the Special Needs Trust for the 82 Benefit of Jamiyah Mitchell.

83           Section 3. The amount paid by the South Broward Hospital
 84 District pursuant to s. 768.28, Florida Statutes, and the amount 85 awarded under this act are intended to provide the sole 86 compensation for all present and future claims arising out of 87 the factual situation described in this act which resulted in 88 injuries and damages to Jamiyah Mitchell, Latricia Mitchell, and 89 Jerald Mitchell. Of the amount awarded under this act, the total
 90 amount paid for attorney fees may not exceed $143,100, the total 91 amount paid for lobbying fees may not exceed $55,650, and the 92 total amount for costs and other similar expenses may not exceed 93 $35,240.66.

94           Section 4. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.
