5 and insert:

6 this state shall create a mechanism for senders of payments to 7 identify whether a payment to a payee is for goods and services
8 or is personal. The mechanism must clearly indicate the sender's 9 requirement to indicate the appropriate transaction type. The 10 sender of the payment is responsible for indicating the 11 appropriate transaction type. All third party settlement

12 organizations shall maintain records that clearly identify 13 whether a transaction, as designated by the sender of the 14 payment, is a transaction for goods and services or is personal.
15 The information in the return submitted to the department under 16 subsection (2) for such entities must be limited to transactions
17 for goods and services.

18 (7) Notwithstanding this section, subsection (6) does not 19 apply to a third party settlement organization if a contractual
20 agreement or arrangement to provide a third party payment
21 network to a participating payee requires the third party
22 settlement organization solely to settle third party network
23 transactions for the provision of goods and services.

24 Section 5. Section 286.312, Florida Statutes, is created to 25 read:

26 286.312 Prohibited use of state funds; censorship or 27 blacklisting of news sources.—An agency may not enter into a 28 contract or other agreement with an entity whose function is to 29 advise the censorship or blacklisting of news sources based on 30 subjective criteria or political biases under the stated goal of 31 fact-checking or removing misinformation.
