Senate Joint Resolution

A joint resolution proposing an amendment to Section 3 of Article VII and the creation of a new section in Article XII of the State Constitution to authorize the Legislature, by general law, to exempt certain tangible personal property from ad valorem taxation.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

That the following amendment to Section 3 of Article VII and the creation of a new section in Article XII of the State Constitution are agreed to and shall be submitted to the electors of this state for approval or rejection at the next general election or at an earlier special election specifically authorized by law for that purpose:

ARTICLE VII

FINANCE AND TAXATION

SECTION 3. Taxes; exemptions.—

(a) All property owned by a municipality and used exclusively by it for municipal or public purposes shall be exempt from taxation. A municipality, owning property outside the municipality, may be required by general law to make payment to the taxing unit in which the property is located. Such portions of property as are used predominantly for educational, literary, scientific, religious or charitable purposes may be exempted by general law from taxation.

(b) There shall be exempt from taxation, cumulatively, to every head of a family residing in this state, household goods and personal effects to the value fixed by general law, not less

30 than one thousand dollars, and to every widow or widower or 31 person who is blind or totally and permanently disabled,
32 property to the value fixed by general law not less than five 33 hundred dollars.

34 (c) Any county or municipality may, for the purpose of its 35 respective tax levy and subject to the provisions of this 36 subsection and general law, grant community and economic 37 development ad valorem tax exemptions to new businesses and 38 expansions of existing businesses, as defined by general law.
39 Such an exemption may be granted only by ordinance of the county 40 or municipality, and only after the electors of the county or 41 municipality voting on such question in a referendum authorize 42 the county or municipality to adopt such ordinances. An 43 exemption so granted shall apply to improvements to real 44 property made by or for the use of a new business and 45 improvements to real property related to the expansion of an 46 existing business and shall also apply to tangible personal
47 property of such new business and tangible personal property
48 related to the expansion of an existing business. The amount or 49 limits of the amount of such exemption shall be specified by 50 general law. The period of time for which such exemption may be 51 granted to a new business or expansion of an existing business 52 shall be determined by general law. The authority to grant such 53 exemption shall expire ten years from the date of approval by 54 the electors of the county or municipality, and may be renewable 55 by referendum as provided by general law.

56 (d) Any county or municipality may, for the purpose of its 57 respective tax levy and subject to the provisions of this
58 subsection and general law, grant historic preservation ad

59 valorem tax exemptions to owners of historic properties. This 60 exemption may be granted only by ordinance of the county or 61 municipality. The amount or limits of the amount of this 62 exemption and the requirements for eligible properties must be 63 specified by general law. The period of time for which this 64 exemption may be granted to a property owner shall be determined
65 by general law.

66 (e) By general law and subject to conditions specified
67 therein:

68 (1) Twenty-five thousand dollars of the assessed value of 69 property subject to tangible personal property tax shall be 70 exempt from ad valorem taxation.

71 (2) The assessed value of solar devices or renewable energy
72 source devices subject to tangible personal property tax may be 73 exempt from ad valorem taxation, subject to limitations provided
74 by general law.

75 (3) Tangible personal property that is located on property
76 classified as agricultural land, as specified by general law, 77 and owned by the landowner or leaseholder of the agricultural 78 land shall be exempt from ad valorem taxation.

79 (f) There shall be granted an ad valorem tax exemption for 80 real property dedicated in perpetuity for conservation purposes,
81 including real property encumbered by perpetual conservation
82 easements or by other perpetual conservation protections, as 83 defined by general law.

84 (g) By general law and subject to the conditions specified 85 therein, each person who receives a homestead exemption as 86 provided in section 6 of this article; who was a member of the 87 United States military or military reserves, the United States

88 Coast Guard or its reserves, or the Florida National Guard; and 89 who was deployed during the preceding calendar year on active 90 duty outside the continental United States, Alaska, or Hawaii in 91 support of military operations designated by the legislature
92 shall receive an additional exemption equal to a percentage of 93 the taxable value of his or her homestead property. The 94 applicable percentage shall be calculated as the number of days
95 during the preceding calendar year the person was deployed on 96 active duty outside the continental United States, Alaska, or 97 Hawaii in support of military operations designated by the 98 legislature divided by the number of days in that year.
