Senator Ingoglia moved the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Before line 10

insert:

Section 1. Section 100.261, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

100.261 Holding bond referenda with other elections.-
Whenever any bond referendum is called, it shall be lawful for any county, district, or municipality to hold such bond referendum on the day of any state, county, or municipal primary or general election, or on the day of any election of such

12 county, district, or municipality for any purpose other than the 13 purpose of voting on such bonds. If such bond referendum is held
14 concurrently with a regularly scheduled election, the county,
15 district, or municipality must ~~shall~~ pay only its pro rata share
16 of election costs directly related to the bond referendum.
17 However, ~~nothing in~~ this section does not ~~shall~~ prohibit the 18 holding of a special or separate bond referendum, except that if 19 the bond issue amount is greater than $500 million, the bond
20 referendum must be held at a general election.
