31	disciplinary confinement, close management I, II, and III, and
32	administrative confinement pursuant to pursuant to rule 33-
33	602.220, Florida Administrative Code. These restrictive housing
34	examples are typically described as solitary confinement. The
35	restrictive housing placements to be studied must include
36	individuals placed in single cells and double cells.
37	(1) The annual study must include all of the following
38	data, disaggregated per individuals under 18 years of age, per
39	individuals 18 to 21 years of age, per individuals 22 to 49
40	years of age, and per individuals 50 years of age and older;
41	disaggregated per correctional facility; disaggregated per type
42	of restrictive housing; and aggregated per total of the
43	Department of Corrections, as follows:
44	(a) Frequency and duration
45	1. The total number of individuals placed in any type of
46	restrictive housing.
47	2. The total number of monthly restrictive housing
48	placements at each facility, including by type of restrictive
49	housing.
50	3. The duration of each individual's placement in
51	restrictive housing, including the total number of consecutive
52	days any individual is continuously assigned to any type of
53	restrictive housing and the number of consecutive days an
54	individual is continuously assigned to each type of restrictive
55	housing.
56	4. The reason each individual is placed in restrictive
57	housing.
58	5. The frequency at which each individual is placed in any
1	Page 2 of 6

59	type of restrictive housing during the year.
60	(b) Demographic informationFor each individual placed in
61	restrictive housing during the year:
62	1. The individual's gender, race, ethnicity, and age at the
63	time of entering restrictive housing.
64	2. Whether each individual placed in restrictive housing
65	has any known qualifying disability under the federal Americans
66	with Disabilities Act, including, but not limited to, mental
67	illnesses, sensory disabilities, mobility disabilities,
68	intellectual disabilities, neurological disabilities, or chronic
69	medical conditions, and if so, which disabilities.
70	3. Whether each individual placed in restrictive housing
71	has any known developmental disabilities, including, but not
72	limited to, autism spectrum disorder, intellectual disabilities,
73	or learning disorders, and, if so, which developmental
74	disabilities.
75	(c) Conditions of restrictive housing
76	1. Which, if any, alternative strategies were employed
77	before the use of restrictive housing.
78	2. Which, if any, mental health interventions were used
79	during restrictive housing.
80	3. How often security checks were conducted by correctional
81	staff for individuals in restrictive housing.
82	4. The frequency and duration of each medical check for
83	individuals in restrictive housing, as determined through video
84	review.
85	5. The frequency of restrictions on property or removal of
86	inmate property as outlined in rule 33-602.201, Florida
87	Administrative Code, during restrictive housing. If there are

88	any restrictions or removals, the reasons for the property
89	restriction or removal, the duration of the property restriction
90	or removal, and the type of property restricted or removed, such
91	as a mattress, sheets, clothes, or personal property.
92	6. The number of accommodations requests pursuant to the
93	Americans with Disabilities Act during restrictive housing and
94	the number of accommodations provided.
95	7. The conditions of restrictive housing in each facility,
96	including, but not limited to, air conditioning and access to
97	legal phone calls, reading materials, adequate nutrition,
98	clothing, medicine or medical attention, showers, and hygienic
99	supplies.
100	8. The size of each room used for restrictive housing.
101	9. For individuals under the age of 18 placed in
102	restrictive housing, whether they had an individual education
103	plan when they entered restrictive housing and, if so, whether
104	they had access to all of the support services, accommodations,
105	and modifications included in the individual education plan
106	during restrictive housing.
107	(d) Mental healthThis study shall analyze all of the
108	following:
109	1. If and how being placed in restrictive housing impacts
110	an individual's mental health, including the severity of mental
111	illness before, during, and after restrictive housing.
112	2. The number of placements in Self-Harm Observation Status
113	and the number of instances of self-injurious behavior,
114	including self-mutilations and other types of self-harm that
115	occurred during restrictive housing.
116	3. The number of placements in inpatient mental health

	24-01397-24 20241696
117	treatment, including crisis stabilization units, transitional
118	care units, and mental health treatment facilities.
119	4. The number of attempted suicides that occurred in
120	restrictive housing.
121	5. The number of suicides that occurred during restrictive
122	housing.
123	6. The number of psychological autopsies conducted on
124	individuals who had been placed in restrictive housing.
125	(e) Economic dataAssuming the Department of Corrections'
126	compliance with all policies and regulations, all of the
127	following:
128	1. The average yearly cost of housing individuals in
129	maximum management versus the average yearly cost of housing
130	individuals in the general population.
131	2. The average yearly cost of housing individuals in
132	disciplinary confinement versus the average yearly cost of
133	housing individuals in the general population.
134	3. The average yearly cost of housing individuals in close
135	management versus the average yearly cost of housing individuals
136	in the general population.
137	4. The average yearly cost of housing individuals in
138	administrative confinement versus the average yearly cost of
139	housing individuals in the general population.
140	5. The average yearly cost of housing individuals in
141	maximum management, disciplinary confinement, close management,
142	and administrative confinement versus the average yearly cost of
143	housing individuals in the general population.
144	6. If the Department of Corrections calculates the costs of
145	restrictive housing, state the methodology used by the

	24-01397-24 20241696
146	department to measure the costs of restrictive housing.
147	(f) Program questions.—
148	1. Whether restrictive housing is more or less expensive
149	than the cost of housing an individual in the general
150	population.
151	2. Whether the recidivism rate after 3 years is different
152	for individuals who spent time in restrictive housing than for
153	individuals who did not.
154	3. How being placed in isolation impacts an individual's
155	mental health.
156	(2) All state agencies and contractors that receive state
157	funds of any kind shall comply with each request for data and
158	information from the Office of Program Policy Analysis and
159	Government Accountability. By July 1 of each year, beginning in
160	2025, the Office of Program Policy Analysis and Government
161	Accountability shall report its findings to the Governor, the
162	President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of
163	Representatives.
164	Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2024.
