By Senator Stewart

incorporate into the Florida Building Code, to be adopted by rule pursuant to s. 553.73(1):7 (1) A ratio of public restroom facilities for men and women which must be provided in all buildings that are newly constructed after September 30, 1992, and that have restrooms open to the public. This subsection does not apply to establishments licensed under chapter 509 if the establishment does not provide meeting or banquet rooms that which accommodate more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the same number of water closets for women as the combined total of water closets and urinals for men. (2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair		17-00222-24 202444 amending s. 553.86, F.S.; requiring the Florida Building Commission to adopt certain requirements in the Florida Building Code for certain public restroom facilities newly constructed or renovated after a specified date; providing an effective date. Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: Section 1. Section 553.86, Florida Statutes, is amended to read: 553.86 Public restroom requirements restrooms; ratio of facilities for men and women; application; incorporation into the Florida Building Code. The Florida Building Commission shall incorporate into the Florida Building Code, to be adopted by rule pursuant to s. 553.73(1):r 11 (1) A ratio of public restroom facilities for men and women which must be provided in all buildings that are newly constructed after September 30, 1992, and that have restrooms open to the public. This subsection section does not apply to establishments licensed under chapter 509 if the establishment does not provide meeting or banquet rooms that which accommodate more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the same number of water closets for women as the combined total of water closets and urinals for men. (2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair	1	A bill to be entitled Building Commission to adopt certain requirements in the Florida Building Code for certain public restroom facilities newly constructed or renovated after a specified date; providing an effective date. Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: Section 1. Section 553.86, Florida Statutes, is amended to read: 553.86 Public restroom requirements restrooms; ratio of facilities for men and women; application; incorporation into the Florida Building Code. The Florida Building Commission shall incorporate into the Florida Building Code, to be adopted by rule pursuant to s. 553.73(1):τ (1) A ratio of public restroom facilities for men and women which must be provided in all buildings that are newly constructed after September 30, 1992, and that have restrooms open to the public. This subsection does not apply to establishments licensed under chapter 509 if the establishment does not provide meeting or banquet rooms that which accommodate more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the same number of water closets for women as the combined total of water closets and urinals for men. (2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair 	2	An act relating to public restroom requirements;
 the Florida Building Code for certain public restroom facilities newly constructed or renovated after a specified date; providing an effective date. Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: Section 1. Section 553.86, Florida Statutes, is amended to read: 553.86 Public restroom requirements restrooms, ratio of facilities for men and women; application; incorporation into the Florida Building Code. The Florida Building Commission shall incorporate into the Florida Building Code, to be adopted by rule pursuant to s. 553.73(1):r (1) A ratio of public restroom facilities for men and women which must be provided in all buildings that are newly constructed after September 30, 1992, and that have restrooms open to the public. This subsection section does not apply to establishments licensed under chapter 509 if the establishment does not provide meeting or banquet rooms that which accommodate more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the same number of water closets for women as the combined total of water closets and urinals for men. (2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair 	3	amending s. 553.86, F.S.; requiring the Florida
<pre>6 facilities newly constructed or renovated after a 7 specified date; providing an effective date. 7 9 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: 10 11 Section 1. Section 553.86, Florida Statutes, is amended to 12 read: 13 553.86 Public restroom requirements restrooms; ratio of 14 facilities for men and women; application; incorporation into 15 the Florida Building Code.—The Florida Building Commission shall 16 incorporate into the Florida Building Code, to be adopted by 17 rule pursuant to s. 553.73(1):r 18 (1) A ratio of public restroom facilities for men and women 19 which must be provided in all buildings that are newly 20 constructed after September 30, 1992, and that have restrooms 21 open to the public. This subsection section does not apply to 22 establishments licensed under chapter 509 if the establishment 23 does not provide meeting or banquet rooms that which accommodate 24 more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the 25 same number of water closets for women as the combined total of 26 water closets and urinals for men. 27 (2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair</pre>	4	Building Commission to adopt certain requirements in
<pre>specified date; providing an effective date. specified date; providing an effective date. Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: Section 1. Section 553.86, Florida Statutes, is amended to read: S53.86 Public restroom requirements restrooms; ratio of facilities for men and women; application; incorporation into the Florida Building Code. The Florida Building Commission shall incorporate into the Florida Building Code, to be adopted by rule pursuant to s. 553.73(1):r (1) A ratio of public restroom facilities for men and women which must be provided in all buildings that are newly constructed after September 30, 1992, and that have restrooms open to the public. This subsection section does not apply to establishments licensed under chapter 509 if the establishment does not provide meeting or banquet rooms that which accommodate more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the same number of water closets for women as the combined total of water closets and urinals for men. (2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair</pre>	5	the Florida Building Code for certain public restroom
Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: Section 1. Section 553.86, Florida Statutes, is amended to read: 553.86 Public restroom requirements restrooms; ratio of facilities for men and women; application; incorporation into the Florida Building Code.—The Florida Building Commission shall incorporate into the Florida Building Code, to be adopted by rule pursuant to s. 553.73(1):7 (1) A ratio of public restroom facilities for men and women which must be provided in all buildings that are newly constructed after September 30, 1992, and that have restrooms open to the public. This subsection section does not apply to establishments licensed under chapter 509 if the establishment does not provide meeting or banquet rooms that which accommodate more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the same number of water closets for women as the combined total of water closets and urinals for men.	6	facilities newly constructed or renovated after a
Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: Section 1. Section 553.86, Florida Statutes, is amended to read: 553.86 Public restroom requirements restrooms; ratio of facilities for men and women; application; incorporation into the Florida Building Code.—The Florida Building Commission shall incorporate into the Florida Building Code, to be adopted by rule pursuant to s. 553.73(1):7 (1) A ratio of public restroom facilities for men and women which must be provided in all buildings that are newly constructed after September 30, 1992, and that have restrooms open to the public. This subsection section does not apply to establishments licensed under chapter 509 if the establishment does not provide meeting or banquet rooms that which accommodate more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the same number of water closets for women as the combined total of water closets and urinals for men.	7	specified date; providing an effective date.
10 11 Section 1. Section 553.86, Florida Statutes, is amended to 12 read: 13 553.86 Public restroom requirements restrooms; ratio of 14 facilities for men and women; application; incorporation into 15 the Florida Building Code. The Florida Building Commission shall 16 incorporate into the Florida Building Code, to be adopted by 17 rule pursuant to s. 553.73(1): τ 18 (1) A ratio of public restroom facilities for men and women 19 which must be provided in all buildings that are newly 20 constructed after September 30, 1992, and that have restrooms 21 open to the public. This subsection section does not apply to 22 establishments licensed under chapter 509 if the establishment 23 does not provide meeting or banquet rooms that which accommodate 24 more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the 25 same number of water closets for women as the combined total of 26 water closets and urinals for men. 27 (2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair	8
Section 1. Section 553.86, Florida Statutes, is amended to read: 553.86 Public restroom requirements restrooms; ratio of facilities for men and women; application; incorporation into the Florida Building Code.—The Florida Building Commission shall incorporate into the Florida Building Code, to be adopted by rule pursuant to s. 553.73(1):7 (1) A ratio of public restroom facilities for men and women which must be provided in all buildings that are newly constructed after September 30, 1992, and that have restrooms open to the public. This subsection section does not apply to establishments licensed under chapter 509 if the establishment does not provide meeting or banquet rooms that which accommodate more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the same number of water closets for women as the combined total of water closets and urinals for men. (2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair	9	Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:
read: 553.86 Public restroom requirements restrooms; ratio of facilities for men and women; application; incorporation into the Florida Building Code.—The Florida Building Commission shall incorporate into the Florida Building Code, to be adopted by rule pursuant to s. 553.73(1):7 (1) A ratio of public restroom facilities for men and women which must be provided in all buildings that are newly constructed after September 30, 1992, and that have restrooms open to the public. This subsection section does not apply to establishments licensed under chapter 509 if the establishment does not provide meeting or banquet rooms that which accommodate more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the same number of water closets for women as the combined total of water closets and urinals for men. (2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair	10
13 553.86 Public restroom requirements restrooms; ratio of facilities for men and women; application; incorporation into the Florida Building Code.—The Florida Building Commission shall incorporate into the Florida Building Code, to be adopted by rule pursuant to s. 553.73(1): τ 18 (1) A ratio of public restroom facilities for men and women which must be provided in all buildings that are newly constructed after September 30, 1992, and that have restrooms open to the public. This subsection does not apply to establishments licensed under chapter 509 if the establishment does not provide meeting or banquet rooms that which accommodate more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the same number of water closets for women as the combined total of water closets and urinals for men. 20 (2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair	11	Section 1. Section 553.86, Florida Statutes, is amended to facilities for men and women; application; incorporation into the Florida Building Code.—The Florida Building Commission shall incorporate into the Florida Building Code, to be adopted by rule pursuant to s. 553.73(1):7 (1) A ratio of public restroom facilities for men and women which must be provided in all buildings that are newly constructed after September 30, 1992, and that have restrooms open to the public. This subsection section does not apply to establishments licensed under chapter 509 if the establishment does not provide meeting or banquet rooms that which accommodate more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the same number of water closets for women as the combined total of water closets and urinals for men. (2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair	12	read:
15The Florida Building Commission shall16incorporate into the Florida Building Code, to be adopted by17rule pursuant to s. $553.73(1)$: τ 18(1) A ratio of public restroom facilities for men and women19which must be provided in all buildings that are newly20constructed after September 30, 1992, and that have restrooms21open to the public. This subsection section does not apply to22establishments licensed under chapter 509 if the establishment23does not provide meeting or banquet rooms that which accommodate24more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the25same number of water closets for women as the combined total of26water closets and urinals for men.27(2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair	13	553.86 Public restroom requirements restrooms; ratio of incorporate into the Florida Building Code, to be adopted by rule pursuant to s. 553.73(1):- (1) A ratio of public restroom facilities for men and women which must be provided in all buildings that are newly constructed after September 30, 1992, and that have restrooms open to the public. This subsection does not apply to establishments licensed under chapter 509 if the establishment does not provide meeting or banquet rooms that which accommodate more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the same number of water closets for women as the combined total of water closets and urinals for men. (2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair	14	facilities for men and women; application; incorporation into rule pursuant to s. 553.73(1):- rule pursuant to s. 553.73(1):- (1) A ratio of public restroom facilities for men and women which must be provided in all buildings that are newly constructed after September 30, 1992, and that have restrooms open to the public. This subsection section does not apply to establishments licensed under chapter 509 if the establishment does not provide meeting or banquet rooms that which accommodate more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the same number of water closets for women as the combined total of water closets and urinals for men. (2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair	15	the Florida Building Code.—The Florida Building Commission shall
(1) A ratio of public restroom facilities for men and women which must be provided in all buildings that are newly constructed after September 30, 1992, and that have restrooms open to the public. This subsection section does not apply to establishments licensed under chapter 509 if the establishment does not provide meeting or banquet rooms that which accommodate more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the same number of water closets for women as the combined total of water closets and urinals for men. (2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair	16	incorporate into the Florida Building Code, to be adopted by which must be provided in all buildings that are newly constructed after September 30, 1992, and that have restrooms open to the public. This subsection section does not apply to establishments licensed under chapter 509 if the establishment does not provide meeting or banquet rooms that which accommodate more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the same number of water closets for women as the combined total of water closets and urinals for men. (2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair	17	rule pursuant to s. 553.73(1) : ,
20 constructed after September 30, 1992, and that have restrooms 21 open to the public. This subsection section does not apply to 22 establishments licensed under chapter 509 if the establishment 23 does not provide meeting or banquet rooms that which accommodate 24 more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the 25 same number of water closets for women as the combined total of 26 water closets and urinals for men. 27 (2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair	18	(1) A ratio of public restroom facilities for men and women open to the public. This subsection section does not apply to establishments licensed under chapter 509 if the establishment does not provide meeting or banquet rooms that which accommodate more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the same number of water closets for women as the combined total of water closets and urinals for men. 27 (2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair	19	which must be provided in all buildings that are newly establishments licensed under chapter 509 if the establishment does not provide meeting or banquet rooms that which accommodate more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the same number of water closets for women as the combined total of water closets and urinals for men. (2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair	20	constructed after September 30, 1992, and that have restrooms does not provide meeting or banquet rooms that which accommodate more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the same number of water closets for women as the combined total of water closets and urinals for men. (2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair	21	open to the public. This subsection section does not apply to <pre>24 more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the 25 same number of water closets for women as the combined total of 26 water closets and urinals for men. 27 (2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair</pre>	22	establishments licensed under chapter 509 if the establishment
<pre>25 same number of water closets for women as the combined total of 26 water closets and urinals for men. 27 (2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair</pre>	23	does not provide meeting or banquet rooms that which accommodate
<pre>26 water closets and urinals for men. 27 (2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair</pre>	24	more than 150 persons and the establishment has at least the
27 (2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair	25	same number of water closets for women as the combined total of
	26	water closets and urinals for men.
28 accessible toilet compartment or a single-user toilet room which	27	(2) For public restroom facilities with a wheelchair
	28	accessible toilet compartment or a single-user toilet room which
29 are newly constructed or renovated after July 1, 2024, both of	29	are newly constructed or renovated after July 1, 2024, both of

Page 1 of 2

CODING: Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.

	17-00222-24 202444
30	the following requirements:
31	(a) That a hook be installed within the reach range of an
32	average-sized person while the person is sitting on the toilet
33	seat.
34	(b) That such public restroom facilities must otherwise be
35	in compliance with ss. 553.501-553.513 and all applicable
36	requirements set forth in the Florida Accessibility Code for
37	Building Construction.
38	Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2024.

CODING: Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.