I. Summary:

SB 558 creates a process for former homeless individuals to become a certified “person with lived experience” to provide support services to individuals who are currently experiencing homelessness. The bill requires an individual seeking certification to have received services from a Continuum of Care lead agency (CoC) and to go through a background screening process.

The bill requires a CoC lead agency to provide documentation of the homeless services an individual received from the CoC lead agency to the Department of Children and Families (DCF) when requesting a background check of the applicant.

The bill further requires the DCF to ensure an adequate background screen of an applicant. The bill also makes an applicant ineligible for certification under certain circumstances.

The bill will have an indeterminate, likely insignificant, negative fiscal impact on state government. See Section V. Fiscal Impact Statement.

The bill takes effect July 1, 2024.

II. Present Situation:

Homelessness

Homelessness is defined in several ways, but a person is commonly considered homeless if he or she stays in a homeless shelter, lives in transitional housing, or sleeps in a place not meant for human habitation.¹ To receive federally funded homelessness services, a person is considered homeless if he or she:²

- Is living in a place not meant for human habitation, in emergency shelter, in transitional housing, or exiting an institution where they temporarily resided.³
- Will imminently lose a primary nighttime residence within 14 days and lacks resources or support networks to remain in permanent housing.⁴
- Is part of a family with children or an unaccompanied youth who is unstably housed and likely to continue in that state.
- Is fleeing or attempting to flee from domestic violence, has no other residence, and lacks the resources or support networks to obtain permanent housing.

Annually, the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) releases what is known as a point-in-time snapshot (PIT) or a count of the number of individuals who experience homeless on a single night.⁵ Based on the 2023 PIT, roughly 653,100 people in America experienced homelessness on a single night.⁶ Sixty percent experienced sheltered homelessness (i.e., living in emergency shelter, transitional housing, or a safe haven program) whereas 40 percent were unsheltered.⁷ From 2022 to 2023, the number of individuals experiencing homelessness increased by 12 percent, or roughly 70,650 additional individuals.⁸ This is the highest PIT count of persons experiencing homelessness since reporting began in 2007.⁹

In a 2023 PIT count of Florida's homeless population, an estimated 30,809 individuals were experiencing homelessness, with 15,706 considered unsheltered homeless (i.e., living outside in a car, park, or another place not meant for human habitation).¹⁰ The 2023 PIT count represents a 34 percent increase from the 11,746 individuals who were experiencing homelessness in 2022.¹¹ Additionally, the highest number of individuals who experienced homelessness in 2023 were persons aged 55-64, totaling 5,861.¹²

³ This includes a public or private place not designed for or ordinarily used as a regular sleeping accommodation for human beings, including a car, park, abandoned building, bus or train station, airport, or camping ground; a supervised publicly or privately operated shelter designed to provide temporary living arrangement; or exiting an institution where he or she resided for 90 days or less and who resided in an emergency shelter or place not meant for human habitation immediately before entering that institution.

⁴ Provided that the primary nighttime residence will be lost within 14 days of the date of application for homeless assistance; no subsequent residence has been identified; and the individual lacks the resources or support networks.

Being homeless causes negative effects on an individual's physical and mental health.¹³ Homeless individuals have higher rates of mortality, mental illness, communicable diseases, sexually transmitted diseases, and substance abuse.¹⁴ Both federal and state services and programs provide support to homeless individuals that attempt to address the associated effects of homelessness.¹⁵

Federal – U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development

In recent years, the federal government has recognized the benefit of working with individuals with lived experiences because such individuals can contribute insight from their personal experience and better inform public policy. Engaging individuals with lived experiences in policy considerations can also help policymakers better understand vulnerable populations and how to best serve them by learning and determining unintended consequences of current or proposed policy and how it can be adjusted to better benefit the public.¹⁶

The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development is responsible for implementing national policies that address the nation's homelessness and housing needs.¹⁷ HUD administers programs, such as subsidized housing for low-income families and services for individuals experiencing homelessness.¹⁸

HUD prioritizes working with people who have received supports and services from HUD (lived experience) to better inform policy and achieve housing justice.¹⁹ HUD utilizes the knowledge and information provided by its customers to create effective policy and programs.²⁰ For example, HUD has involved persons with lived experience in developed training materials, policy, and other resources for providers who serve homeless populations.²¹

Florida

State Office on Homelessness

The State Office on Homelessness (State Office) within the Department of Children and Families (DCF) was created in 2001 as a central point of contact within state government on homelessness.²² Section 420.622, F.S., requires the State Office to coordinate resources and programs across all levels of government and with private providers that serve the homeless pursuant to policies set by the Council on Homelessness and available funding.²³

The inter-agency Council on Homelessness (Council) is a 19-member council²⁴ required to develop policy and advise the State Office on how to reduce homelessness statewide. The Council is statutorily required to submit an annual report to the Governor, Legislature, and the DCF's Secretary that summarizes the extent of homelessness in Florida and recommendations for ending homelessness.²⁵

The Council's 2023 report recognized the strong investments made during the 2023 Legislative session that increased funding for affordable housing and recommended a holistic approach to homelessness prevention by coordinating between government, nonprofits, and communities to implement comprehensive strategies to address underlying causes of homelessness.²⁶

Continuums of Care

Continuums of Care (CoC) groups organize to coordinate, plan, and pursue ending homelessness in designated areas throughout Florida.²⁷ Section 420.621(1), F.S., requires CoCs to be composed of representatives from certain organizations, including, but not limited to:

- Nonprofit homeless providers,
- Victim services providers,

²² Ch. 2001-98, Laws of Fla.

²³ Section 420.622(3), F.S.

²⁴ The individuals and agencies included in the Council of Homelessness are: the Secretary of Children and Families, or his or her designee; the Secretary of Economic Opportunity, or his or her designee, who shall advise the council on issues related to rural development; the State Surgeon General, or his or her designee; the Executive Director of Veterans' Affairs, or his or her designee; the Secretary of Corrections, or his or her designee; the Secretary of Health Care Administration, or his or her designee; the Commissioner of Education, or his or her designee; the Executive Director of CareerSource Florida, Inc., or his or her designee; one representative of the Florida Association of Counties; one representative of the Florida League of Cities; one representative of the Florida Supportive Housing Coalition; one representative of the Florida Housing Coalition; the Executive Director of the Florida Housing Finance Corporation, or his or her designee; one representative of the Florida Coalition for the Homeless; the secretary of the Department of Elder Affairs, or his or her designee; and four members appointed by the Governor.

²⁷ Section 420.621, F.S. The Office of Economic Self-Sufficiency (Office) within the Department of Children and Families employs a Continuum of Care (CoC) model to provide services for individuals experiencing homelessness. Local CoCs are organizations composed of representatives of nonprofit homeless providers, victim service providers, faith-based organizations, governments, businesses, advocates, public housing agencies, school districts, social service providers, mental health agencies, etc. The Office designates local CoC entities to serve as lead agencies for homeless services throughout Florida. The DCF, Homelessness, available at: <https://www.myflfamilies.com/services/public-assistance/homelessness> (last visited Dec. 28, 2023).

- Faith-based organizations,
- Governments,
- Businesses,
- Advocates,
- Public housing agencies,
- School districts,
- Social service providers,
- Mental health agencies,
- Hospitals,
- Universities,
- Affordable housing developers,
- Law enforcement, and
- Organizations that serve homeless and formerly homeless persons.²⁸

The purpose of a CoC is to coordinate community efforts to prevent and end homelessness in a catchment area designated by the State Office. Florida’s designated catchment areas must be consistent with the CoC catchment areas recognized by HUD for the purpose of awarding federal homeless assistance grant funding.²⁹ The State Office recognizes one CoC lead agency for each designated catchment area.³⁰

Background Screening and Disqualifying Offenses for Employment

Florida law requires background screening of certain prospective employees to ensure the protection of vulnerable persons.³³ Every person required by law to be screened pursuant to Chapter 435, F.S., must submit a complete set of information necessary to conduct a background screening to his or her employer.³⁴

Chapter 435, F.S., outlines the required background screening requirements. There are two levels of background screening that may be required by law:

- Level 1 screening includes, at a minimum, employment history checks and statewide criminal correspondence checks through the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) and a check of the Dru Sjodin National Sex Offender Public Website.³⁵ It may also include criminal records checks through local law enforcement agencies.
- Level 2 background screening includes, at a minimum, fingerprinting for statewide criminal history records checks through the FDLE and national criminal history checks through the Federal Bureau of Investigation. It may also include local criminal records checks through local law enforcement agencies.³⁶

For both screening levels, an employer must submit the necessary screening information to the FDLE within five working days after receiving it.³⁷ The FDLE then performs a state and federal criminal history record check for any disqualifying offenses.³⁸ If an individual has a disqualifying offense, he or she is disqualified from employment unless an exemption is received.

The screening employer³⁹ ensures that the applicant has good moral character by reviewing the completed background screening and checking for disqualifying offenses. An applicant is disqualified from employment if he or she has been arrested for and is awaiting final disposition of, been found guilty of, regardless of adjudication, or entered a plea of nolo contendere or guilty to, or been adjudicated delinquent and the record has not been sealed or expunged for, any of the following 52 offenses under Florida law, or similar law of another jurisdiction:⁴⁰

- Section 393.135, F.S., relating to sexual misconduct with certain developmentally disabled clients and reporting of such sexual misconduct.
- Section 394.4593, F.S., relating to sexual misconduct with certain mental health patients and reporting of such sexual misconduct.

If an individual is disqualified due to one or more of the disqualifying offenses above, s. 435.07, F.S., allows the secretary of the appropriate agency to exempt the applicant from an employment disqualification under certain circumstances:⁴¹

- Three years have elapsed since the individual has completed or been lawfully released from confinement, supervision, or nonmonetary condition imposed by a court for a disqualifying felony; or
- The applicant has completed or been lawfully released from confinement, supervision, or nonmonetary condition imposed by a court for a misdemeanor or an offense that was a felony at the time of commission but is now a misdemeanor.

Receiving an exemption allows an individual to be employed despite the disqualifying offense. However, an individual who is considered a sexual predator,⁴² career offender,⁴³ or registered sexual offender⁴⁴ cannot be exempted from a disqualification.⁴⁵

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Section 1 of the bill amends s. 420.621, F.S., to define a “person with lived experience” to conform with changes made by the bill that creates a process for an individual who has experienced homelessness to seek certification as a person with lived experience and provide support to individuals currently experiencing homelessness.

Section 2 of the bill creates s. 420.6241, F.S., to allow a former homeless individual to seek certification as a person with lived experience and provide homeless services to an individual currently experiencing homelessness.

The bill makes legislative findings that persons who have experienced homelessness can provide effective support services to a person currently experiencing homelessness because of their shared experiences. Currently, such persons may be prevented from providing services because of their criminal history.

The bill allows a former homeless individual to seek certification as a person with lived experience if that person received homeless services from a CoC. The bill requires the Coc that served the individual to include documentation to the DCF of the homeless services provided to the individual when requesting a background check of the applicant.

The bill creates background screening requirements for applicant’s seeking certification and requires the DCF to ensure an applicant’s background screening follows these requirements. Specifically, the background screening must ensure the applicant has not been arrested for and is awaiting final disposition of, been found guilty of, regardless of adjudication, or entered a plea of nolo contendere or guilty to, or been adjudicated delinquent and the record has not been sealed or expunged for:

- Any felony during the previous 3 years.
- Any offense prohibited under any of the following laws of Florida or similar laws of another jurisdiction:
 - Section 393.135, F.S., relating to sexual misconduct with certain developmentally disabled clients and reporting of such sexual misconduct.
 - Section 394.4593, F.S., relating to sexual misconduct with certain mental health patients and reporting of such sexual misconduct.
 - Section 409.920, F.S., relating to Medicaid provider fraud, if the offense was a felony of the first or second degree.
 - Section 415.111, F.S., relating to abuse, neglect, or exploitation of vulnerable adults.
 - Any offense that constitutes domestic violence as defined in s. 741.28.

 - Section 782.04, F.S., relating to murder.
