 14 Section 1. Section 720.319, Florida Statutes, is created 15 to read:

16 720.319 Database for homeowners' association information.—

17 (1) By July 1, 2025, the department shall establish a 18 searchable database that contains information regarding each 19 association operating within the state. The database must be 20 accessible on the association's webpage. The database must allow 21 a user to search the name by which a community is identified to 22 find the association that governs such community. At a minimum, 23 the database must include all of the following information for 24 each association:

25 (a) The names, e-mail addresses, and other contact

26 information of the officers and directors of the association.

27 (b) An indication that the association is self-managed,
 28 or, if not, the contact information for the person licensed 29 under part VIII of chapter 468 who is responsible for the 30 management of the association.

31 (c) A copy of the association's governing documents, 32 including, but not limited to, declarations, bylaws, rules, and 33 any amendments thereto.

34 (d) A copy of the association's most recently adopted
 35 annual budget, in a uniform format, which includes the amount 36 and purpose of any monthly assessments and any current or 37 pending special assessments levied by the association.

38 (e) A copy of any studies regarding funds in reserve
 39 accounts held by the association or any reports regarding the 40 physical inspection, including any engineering studies, of 41 properties maintained by the association.

42 (2) An association must notify the department of any 43 changes to the information listed in the database within 30 days
 44 after such changes take effect.

45 Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2024.
