COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

CS/CS/CS/SB 86 requires the clerks of the court to create the Hope Card program for persons issued orders of protection, such as a domestic violence injunction or an injunction against the exploitation of a vulnerable adult. Under the program, the Clerks would be required to issue Hope Cards, which identifies and describes the person who is restrained by an order of protection, identifies those protected by the order, and provides the telephone number for the statewide domestic violence hotline. These cards must be issued on a credit-card sized laminated card or in digital form, without cost to the protected person. Displaying the card is expected to facilitate the law enforcement response to a violation of the order.

The bill creates a second degree misdemeanor related to using a Hope Card to wrongfully claim that one is protected by an order of protection.

The bill may have an indeterminate, negative fiscal impact to the Clerks. See Section V., Fiscal Impact Statement.

The bill is effective October 1, 2024.

II. Present Situation:

Injunctions for Protection

Florida has created many forms of injunctive relief protecting persons from harm:

Domestic Violence Injunction

The first injunction against violence was codified in s. 741.30, F.S. It authorizes a family or household member¹ who is either the victim of domestic violence or has reasonable cause to believe he or she is in imminent danger of becoming the victim of any act of domestic violence to file in the circuit court a petition for an injunction against domestic violence. The term “domestic violence” means “any assault, aggravated assault, battery, aggravated battery, sexual assault, sexual battery, stalking, aggravated stalking, kidnapping, false imprisonment, or any criminal offense resulting in physical injury or death of one family or household member by another family or household member.”

Because the injunction is limited to family or household members, similar injunctions have been developed to protect other persons from harm.

Injunction for Protection Against Repeat Violence, Sexual Violence, or Dating Violence

Section 784.046, F.S., provides that a petition for an injunction for protection against repeat violence may be filed in the circuit court by a person who is the victim of repeat violence² or the parent or legal guardian of any minor child who is living at home. The statute also provides that a petition for an injunction for protection against dating violence may be filed in the circuit court by a person who is the victim of dating violence³ and has reasonable cause to believe he or she is in imminent danger of becoming the victim of another act of dating violence; a person who has reasonable cause to believe he or she is in imminent danger of becoming the victim of an act of dating violence; or the parent or legal guardian of any minor child who is living at home and who seeks an injunction for protection against dating violence on behalf of that minor child.

Section 784.086, F.S., also provides that a petition for an injunction for protection against sexual violence may be filed in the circuit court by a person who is the victim of sexual violence⁴ or the parent or legal guardian of a minor child who is living at home who is the victim of sexual violence on his or her own behalf or on behalf of the minor child.

² “Repeat violence” means two incidents of violence or stalking committed by the respondent, one of which must have been within 6 months of the filing of the petition, which are directed against the petitioner or the petitioner’s immediate family member. Section 784.046(1)(b), F.S.

³ “Dating violence” is violence between individuals who have or have had a continuing and significant relationship of a romantic or intimate nature. This relationship is determined based on specified factors. Section 784.046(1)(d), F.S.

⁴ “Sexual violence” means any one incident of sexual battery; a lewd or lascivious act committed upon or in the presence of a person younger than 16 years of age; luring or enticing a child; sexual performance by a child; or any other forcible felony wherein a sexual act is committed or attempted, regardless of whether criminal charges based on the incident were filed, reduced, or dismissed by the state attorney. Section 784.046(1)(c), F.S.

Injunction Against Stalking

Section 784.0485, F.S., authorizes a person who is the victim of stalking⁵ or the parent or legal guardian of a minor child who is a victim and living at home to file in the circuit court a petition for an injunction for protection against stalking. For the purposes of injunctions for protection against stalking, the offense of stalking includes the offense of cyberstalking.⁶

Injunction for Protection Against Exploitation of a Vulnerable Adult

Section 825.1035, F.S., creates a cause of action for an injunction for protection against exploitation⁷ of a vulnerable adult.⁸ This injunction may be sought by a vulnerable adult in imminent danger of being exploited; the guardian of a vulnerable adult in imminent danger of being exploited; a person or organization acting on behalf of the vulnerable adult with the consent of the vulnerable adult or his or her guardian; an agent under a valid durable power of attorney with the authority specifically granted in the power of attorney; or a person who simultaneously files a petition for determination of incapacity and appointment of an emergency temporary guardian with respect to the vulnerable adult.⁹

Legal Standard for a Protective Injunction

The procedures for the issuance of a protective injunction issued under ss. 741.30, 784.046, 784.0485 and s. 825.1035, F.S., are similar. As to domestic violence, a person who is the victim of domestic violence or has reasonable cause to believe he or she is in imminent danger of becoming a victim of domestic violence has standing to file a sworn petition for an injunction.¹⁰ Based on this initial petition, a court may issue a temporary injunction ex-parte.¹¹ During an ex-parte proceeding, a court is generally not required to review a response from the accused and may base a temporary injunction on hearsay evidence.^{12,13} Additional evidence may be considered, however, if an accused appears at the ex-parte proceeding or has received reasonable notice of the hearing.¹⁴ This ex-parte proceeding is often necessary because “the existence of a true emergency . . . may sometimes require immediate action that will not permit the movant to verify each allegation made.”¹⁵

⁶ “Cyberstalk” means to engage in a course of conduct to communicate, or to cause to be communicated, words, images, or language by or through the use of electronic mail or electronic communication, directed at a specific person; or to access, or attempt to access, the online accounts or Internet-connected home electronic systems of another person without that person’s permission, causing substantial emotional distress to that person and serving no legitimate purpose. Section 784.048(1)(d), F.S.

⁷ Exploitation means exploitation of an elderly person or disabled adult under s. 825.103(1), F.S. Section 825.101(6), F.S.

⁸ See discussion of the definition of “vulnerable adult,” supra.

⁹ Section 825.1035(2), F.S.

¹⁰ Section 741.30(1)(a), F.S.

¹¹ Section 741.30(5)(c), F.S.

¹² Parrish v. Price, 71 So. 3d 132, 134 (Fla. 2d DCA 2011) (holding that a temporary injunction may be based solely on the petition filed, even if it is almost entirely based on hearsay statements).

¹³ Additionally, when a “parent files a sworn petition and has reasonable cause to believe the minor child is a victim of sexual violence by a nonparent, the sworn petition is a presumptively sufficient basis for an injunction.” (emphasis added) Berthiaume v. B.S. ex rel. A.K., 85 So. 3d 1117, 1119 (Fla. 1st DCA 2012).

¹⁴ Section 741.30(5)(b), F.S.

¹⁵ Smith v. Crider, 932 So. 2d 393, 399 n. 4 (Fla. 2d DCA 2006).

Parties to an injunction are entitled to a full hearing and a temporary injunction is effective for a maximum of 15 days.¹⁶ A full hearing is required prior to the expiration of the temporary injunction. At the full hearing, the accused must have a reasonable opportunity to prove or disprove the allegations made in the complaint and is entitled to introduce evidence and cross-examine witnesses.¹⁷ Based upon the full hearing, a court “must consider the current allegations, the parties’ behavior within the relationship, and the history of the relationship as a whole” to determine if a permanent injunction is warranted based on the petitioner’s belief that he or she is in imminent danger of becoming a victim of domestic violence.¹⁸

Enforcement of a Protective Injunction

Just as filing and issuance of protective injunctions are similar, so is enforcement. A person who willfully violates an injunction for protection commits a misdemeanor of the first degree.¹⁹ A third offense related to the same protected person is a third degree felony.²⁰ Similarly, a warrantless arrest can be made for violation of an injunction if a law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the person has violated an injunction.²¹ The general rule requiring a law enforcement officer to witness the offense before making a misdemeanor arrest does not apply to arrests for violation of an injunction.

Statewide Record of Injunctions

The Florida Department of Law Enforcement is required to create and maintain the Domestic and Repeat Violence Injunction Statewide Verification System.²² The system is a statewide communication system capable of electronically transmitting information to and between criminal justice agencies relating to domestic violence injunctions and repeat violence injunctions issued by the courts throughout the state. The information must include, but is not limited to, information as to the existence and status of any injunction for verification purposes. The system must be notified according to the following requirements:

- Within 24 hours after the court issues an injunction for protection against domestic violence or changes, continues, extends, or vacates an injunction for protection against domestic violence, the clerk of the court must electronically transmit a certified copy of the injunction for service to the sheriff having jurisdiction over the residence of the petitioner.
- Within 24 hours after service of process of an injunction for protection against domestic violence upon a respondent, the law enforcement officer must electronically transmit the written proof of service of process to the sheriff having jurisdiction over the residence of the petitioner.
- Within 24 hours after the sheriff receives a certified copy of the injunction for protection against domestic violence, the sheriff must make information relating to the injunction available to other law enforcement agencies by electronically transmitting the information to the department.

¹⁹ Section 741.31(4)(a), F.S. (domestic violence); s. 784.047(1), F.S. (repeat violence, sexual violence, or dating violence), and s. 825.1036(4)(a), F.S. (exploitation of vulnerable adult).

²² Section 741.30(8)(b), F.S.

- Within 24 hours after the sheriff or other law enforcement officer has made service upon the respondent and the sheriff has been so notified, the sheriff must make information relating to the service available to other law enforcement agencies by electronically transmitting the information to the department.

The apparent purpose of the statewide verification system is to allow any law enforcement agency in the state access to injunctions in order to facilitate their enforcement.

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

The bill requires the clerks of court, consulting with the Attorney General, to develop the Hope Card Program. The purpose of the program is to issue a Hope Card to any person who has been issued a final order of protection by a court in this state and who requests a card.

Beginning October 1, 2024, a person who has been issued a final judgment of an injunction for protection against domestic violence, repeat violence, sexual violence, dating violence, or exploitation of a vulnerable adult may apply for a Hope Card with the clerk of the court of the circuit where the petition for an injunction for protection was initially filed. A person may apply for a Hope Card at the time the final judgment on injunction for protection is issued or at any other time before the expiration of the order of protection.

The clerk of the court may not assess a fee for the issuance of a Hope Card.

A clerk of court must create and provide the card within 3 business days after request. The card must be a digital card or a durable, laminated, wallet-sized card containing all of the following information:

- The respondent's name and date of birth.
- The name and date of birth of the petitioner or protected person.
- The telephone number for the statewide domestic violence hotline.
- Pertinent information about the order of protection, including, but not limited to, the issuing court; the date the order of protection was issued; and the expiration date, if any, of the order of protection.
- The issue date and expiration date.

A Hope Card is valid during the term of the injunction, but for no longer than 2 years, and may be renewed so long as the underlying injunction is valid.

The bill provides that a person who has actual knowledge that he or she is not protected by a current injunction and who presents a Hope Card or other document purporting to be a Hope Card for the purpose of evidencing the existence of an injunction commits a second degree misdemeanor.²³

²³ A second degree misdemeanor is punishable by a fine of up to $500 and incarceration for up to 60 days, or both. Sections 775.082 and 775.083, F.S.

The bill is effective October 1, 2024.

IV. Constitutional Issues:

A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

None.

B. Public Records/Open Meetings Issues:

None.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

None.

D. State Tax or Fee Increases:

None.

E. Other Constitutional Issues:

None.

V. Fiscal Impact Statement:

A. Tax/Fee Issues:

None.

B. Private Sector Impact:

None.

C. Government Sector Impact:

This bill may have an indeterminate, negative fiscal impact to the Clerks. In the 2022-2023 fiscal year, there were 80,159 petitions filed for one of the forms of injunction against violence.²⁴ The clerks estimate that 22 percent of cases are resolved by issuance of a final order of protection, which equates to approximately 17,635 cases per annum.²⁵

The Clerks estimate that it will cost $40 to create a hardcopy Hope Card, which includes the start-up and annual costs for supplies and equipment, the printing and mailing of the Hope Cards, and related staff costs for processing applications and issuing a Hope Card. If every person eligible were to apply for a card, the annual cost to the 67 Clerks would be $705,400.²⁶

The bill also permits Clerks to issue a digital form of the Hope Card which will be less costly to produce.

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

None.

VII. Related Issues:

None.

VIII. Statutes Affected:

This bill substantially amends the following sections of the Florida Statutes: 741.30, 784.046, 784.0485, and 825.1035.

This bill creates section 741.311 of the Florida Statutes.

IX. Additional Information:

A. Committee Substitute – Statement of Substantial Changes:

(Summarizing differences between the Committee Substitute and the prior version of the bill.)

CS/CS/CS by Fiscal Policy on February 22, 2024:

The committee substitute removed the Florida Association of Court Clerks, Inc. from responsibility for creating the program, moved the implementation date from July 1, 2024 to October 1, 2024, extended the deadline for production and delivery of a card to 3 business days, limited personal information to be printed on the card and added a requirement to list an expiration date, removed the ability to get a Hope Card related to a foreign judgment, and added a misdemeanor offense for falsely claiming the existence of an injunction.

CS/CS by Appropriations Committee on Criminal and Civil Justice on February 8, 2024:

The committee substitute allows for the issuance of a digital Hope Card and requires the Hope Card to contain the telephone number for the statewide domestic violence hotline.

CS by Judiciary on January 9, 2024:

The committee substitute removes references to the Office of the State Court Administrator, clarifying that the Florida Association of Court Clerks, Inc., is solely responsible for implementation of the program. It also removes the requirement to use certified mail for delivery of the card, and changes delivery times from “24 hours” to delivered to the petitioner or deposited in the mail not later than the end of the next business day after the card is created.

B. Amendments:

None.
