COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

CS/SB 1378 authorizes a court to order a driver who is convicted of leaving the scene of a crash, who caused or otherwise contributed to the crash, that resulted in damage to a vehicle or other property which is driven or attended by any person, to make restitution to the vehicle or property owner for any damage caused by the driver’s vehicle.

The bill does not appear to have a fiscal impact on state or local government. The bill may have an indeterminate positive fiscal impact on the private sector. See Section V., Fiscal Impact Statement for details.

This bill takes effect October 1, 2025.

II. Present Situation:

Duty to Give Information and Render Aid

Section 316.062, F.S., outlines a driver’s duties to give information and render aid if he or she is involved in a crash resulting in personal injury, death, or property damage, including but not limited to:

- Giving his or her name, address, and the registration number of the vehicle he or she is driving to any person injured in such crash, or to the driver or occupant of or person attending any vehicle or other property damaged in the crash, or to any police officer at the scene of the crash or who is investigating the crash;

- Exhibiting his or her license or permit to drive, upon request and if available, to any such person or police officer specified above; and
- Rendering reasonable assistance to any injured person, including carrying such person to a physician, surgeon, or hospital for medical or surgical treatment if it is apparent that treatment is necessary or upon the injured person's request.

Crashes Involving Damage to Vehicle or Other Property

Under s. 316.061(1), F.S., the driver of any vehicle involved in a crash resulting only in damage to a vehicle or other property which is driven or attended by any person must immediately stop such vehicle at the scene of the crash, or as close thereto as possible, and must remain at the scene of the crash until he or she has fulfilled the requirements of s. 316.062, F.S., related to the duty to give information and render aid.

A person who violates s. 316.061(1), F.S., by leaving the scene of a crash involving damage to a vehicle or property which is attended by another person commits a second degree misdemeanor,¹ and must pay an additional fine of $5, which is deposited in the Emergency Medical Services Trust Fund, which is used to improve and expand prehospital emergency medical services.²

Under s. 316.063(1), F.S., the driver of any vehicle which collides with, or is involved in a crash with, any vehicle or other property which is unattended, resulting in any damage to such other vehicle or property, must immediately stop and either locate and notify the operator or owner of the vehicle or other property of the driver's name and address and the registration number of the vehicle he or she is driving, or must securely attach in a conspicuous place in or on the vehicle or other property a written notice giving the driver's name and address and the registration number of the vehicle he or she is driving, and must notify the nearest office of a duly authorized police authority.

A person who violates s. 316.063(1), F.S., by leaving the scene of a collision or crash with any vehicle or other property which is unattended, resulting in any damage to such other vehicle or property, commits a second degree misdemeanor.

Crash Involving Death or Personal Injuries

Under s. 316.027(2), F.S., the driver of a vehicle involved in a crash occurring on public or private property which results in death or personal injury to another person must immediately stop the vehicle at the scene of the crash, or as close thereto as possible, and must remain at the scene of the crash until he or she has fulfilled the requirements of s. 316.062, F.S., related to the duty to give information and render aid.

¹ A second degree misdemeanor is punishable by up to six months in county jail and a $500 fine. See ss. 775.082 and 775.083, F.S.

² Section 401.113, F.S.

A person who violates s. 316.027(2), F.S., by leaving the scene of a crash involving death or personal injuries commits a:

- Third degree felony,³ if the crash results in injury to a person other than serious bodily injury.⁴
- Second degree felony,⁵ if the crash results in serious bodily injury to a person.⁶
- First degree felony,⁷ if the crash results in the death of a person and must be sentenced to a four year mandatory minimum term of imprisonment.⁸

Notwithstanding the general requirements for restitution under s. 775.089(1)(a), F.S., the court must order a person who violates s. 316.027(2), F.S., to make restitution to the victim for any damage or loss unless the court finds clear and compelling reasons not to order the restitution.^{9,10} The Legislature added the restitution requirement to s. 316.027, F.S., in 2007.¹¹

Restitution

Unless a court finds clear and compelling reasons not to order restitution, s. 775.089(1)(a), F.S., requires a court to order a defendant to make restitution to a victim for damage or loss:

- Caused directly or indirectly by the defendant's offense; and
- Related to the defendant's criminal episode.

The Florida Supreme Court has interpreted s. 775.089(1)(a), F.S., to require any damage for which restitution is ordered to bear a significant relationship to, and be directly or indirectly caused by, the convicted offense.¹²

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

The bill amends s. 316.061(1), F.S., authorizing a court to order a driver who is convicted of leaving the scene of a crash, who caused or otherwise contributed to the crash, that resulted in damage to a vehicle or other property which is driven or attended by any person to make restitution to the owner of such vehicle or other property for any damage that was caused by the driver's vehicle.

³ A third degree felony is punishable by up to five years in prison and a $5,000 fine. See ss. 775.082, F.S., 775.083, F.S., or 775.084, F.S.

⁴ Section 316.027(2)(a), F.S.

⁵ A second degree felony is punishable by up to 15 years in prison and a $10,000 fine. See ss. 775.082, F.S., 775.083, F.S., or 775.084, F.S.

⁶ Section 316.207(2)(b), F.S.

⁷ A first degree felony is punishable by up to 30 years in prison and a $10,000 fine. See ss. 775.082, F.S., 775.083, F.S., or 775.084, F.S.

⁸ Section 316.027(2)(c), F.S.

⁹ Section 316.207(2)(d), F.S.

¹⁰ The court must also order payment to the Crimes Compensation Trust Fund (CCTF) under ch. 960, F.S., which covers expenses such as physical and mental health care and other compensable costs. Section 316.027(2), F.S., is the only leaving the scene offense that qualifies as a "crime" under s. 960.03(3)(b), F.S., and thus is the only leaving the scene offense for which a victim is eligible to receive an award from the CCTF and for which a court may order the defendant to pay restitution to the CCTF.
