27 286.011. However, any hearing held or oral argument heard by the 28 commission pursuant to chapter 120 or this chapter shall be open 29 to the public. All draft orders and related written 30 communications that are developed in preparation for, or 31 preliminary to, the issuance of any order by the commission or 32 its designees ~~a final written order~~ are confidential and exempt
33 from ~~the provisions of~~ s. 119.07(1).

34 Section 2. The amendment made by this act to s.
35 447.205(10), Florida Statutes, is subject to the Open Government
36 Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15, Florida
37 Statutes, and shall stand repealed on October 2, 2030, unless 38 reviewed and saved from repeal through reenactment by the 39 Legislature and the text of that subsection shall revert to that 40 in existence on June 30, 2025, except that any amendments to 41 such text enacted other than by this act shall be preserved and 42 continue to operate to the extent that such amendments are not 43 dependent upon the amendment to the text which expires pursuant 44 to this section.

45 Section 3. The Legislature finds that it is a public
46 necessity that draft orders and related written communications 47 that are developed in preparation for, or preliminary to, the 48 issuance of any order by the Public Employees Relations
49 Commission or its designees be made confidential and exempt from 50 s. 119.071(1), Florida Statutes, and s. 24(a), Article I of the

51 State Constitution. The Public Employees Relations Commission,
52 as a quasi-judicial agency, speaks through its written orders
53 based on the law and facts. The commission and its hearing
54 officers rely on the confidentiality of draft orders and written 55 communications related to these drafts before they become final 56 and are released to the public. The existing provision in s.
57 447.205(10), Florida Statutes, addresses this confidentiality
58 and recognizes its importance to the proper functioning of the 59 commission. However, it was adopted in 1977, with the only 60 substantive amendment being made in 1991. To avoid the existing 61 provision from being inadvertently read to allow public access
62 to draft orders or commission deliberations, including 63 preliminary work prepared by commission hearing officers, the 64 Legislature finds that it is a public necessity that the 65 language of the provision providing for confidentiality and 66 exemption of commission deliberations and draft orders be 67 clarified to reflect updates in technology, current practices of 68 the commission related to the use of hearing officers, and 69 modern methods of communication. The confidentiality and 70 exemption of commission deliberations and draft orders are 71 essential to the operation of the commission. Likewise, the 72 confidentiality and exemption of written communications related 73 to draft orders are essential to the operation of the commission 74 given updates in technology, commission practice of using 75 hearing officers as designees to prepare draft orders and assist

76 in preparing final orders, and modern methods of communication.
 77 The Legislature further finds that the harm that may result from 78 the release of written communications related to draft orders, 79 in light of current technology, practices, and methods of 80 communication, outweighs any public benefit that may be derived 81 from the disclosure of such written communications.

82 Section 4. Paragraph (d) of subsection (4) of section
 83 119.071, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

504 unless reviewed and saved from repeal through reenactment by the

514 Public Employees Relations Commission; the names, home
515 addresses, telephone numbers, dates of birth, and places of

532 | that HB 1387 or similar legislation takes effect, if such
