463 sometimes turn their ire towards Commission employees as part of 464 their campaign against the actions of the judge in the 465 underlying litigation. Commission employees have been subject to 466 acts of intimidation by such dissatisfied litigants, including 467 being harassed, intimidated, and stalked online, having false
468 and defamatory statements posted on social media, being 469 threatened via emails or telephone calls, and being 470 inappropriately contacted regarding commission affairs at the 471 personal residences of employees and their family members. These 472 acts of intimidation have placed Judicial Qualifications
473 Commission employees in fear of harm by disgruntled litigants
474 who seek punishment of judges by the Commission for unfavorable 475 litigation results. The Legislature finds that the release of 476 personal identifying and location information of employees of 477 the Judicial Qualifications Commission and their families may 478 place them at risk of physical harm and harassment and the risk 479 of such harm and harassment outweighs any public benefit that 480 may be derived from the public disclosure of such information.

481 Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2025.
