787.06 Human trafficking.—

(2) As used in this section, the term:

(i) "Sexual exploitation" means any violation of s. 794.011, excluding s. 794.011(10).

20251804er

(5) (a) Any person 18 years of age or older who knowingly initiates, organizes, plans, finances, directs, manages, or supervises a venture that has subjected a child younger than 12 years of age, or a person who is mentally defective or mentally incapacitated as those terms are defined in s. 794.011(1), to human trafficking for sexual exploitation commits capital human trafficking of vulnerable persons for sexual exploitation, a capital felony punishable as provided in ss. 775.082 and 921.1427.

(b) For each instance of human trafficking of any individual under paragraph (a), a separate crime is committed and a separate punishment is authorized.

(c) In all capital cases under this subsection, the procedure in s. 921.1427 shall be followed to determine a sentence of death or life imprisonment.

(d) If the prosecutor intends to seek the death penalty, the prosecutor must give notice to the defendant and file the notice with the court within 45 days after arraignment. The notice must contain a list of the aggravating factors the state intends to prove and has reason to believe it can prove beyond a reasonable doubt. The court may allow the prosecutor to amend the notice upon a showing of good cause.

Section 8. Section 921.1427, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

921.1427 Sentence of death or life imprisonment for capital human trafficking of vulnerable persons for sexual exploitation; further proceedings to determine sentence.—

(1) INTENT.—

(a) The Legislature finds that a person who commits the

20251804er

581 offense of initiating, organizing, planning, financing, 582 directing, managing, or supervising a venture that has subjected 583 a child younger than 12 years of age, or a person who is 584 mentally defective or mentally incapacitated, to human 585 trafficking for sexual exploitation in violation of s. 787.06(5)
586 imposes a great risk of death and danger to vulnerable members 587 of this state. Such crimes exploit society's most vulnerable
588 citizens, destroy the innocence of young children, and violate 589 all standards of decency held by civilized society, and persons 590 who commit such acts against such vulnerable persons may be 591 determined by the trier of fact to have a culpable mental state 592 of reckless indifference or disregard for human life.

593 (b) It is the intent of the Legislature that the procedure
594 in this section shall be followed, and a prosecutor must file 595 notice as provided in s. 787.06(5) if he or she intends to seek 596 the death penalty.

597 (2) SEPARATE PROCEEDINGS ON ISSUE OF PENALTY.—Upon 598 conviction or an adjudication of guilt of a defendant of a 599 capital felony under s. 787.06(5), the court shall conduct a 600 separate sentencing proceeding to determine whether the 601 defendant should be sentenced to death or life imprisonment as 602 authorized by s. 775.082. The proceeding shall be conducted by 603 the trial judge before the trial jury as soon as practicable.
604 If, through impossibility or inability, the trial jury is unable 605 to reconvene for a hearing on the issue of penalty, having 606 determined the guilt of the accused, the trial judge may summon 607 a special juror or jurors as provided in chapter 913 to 608 determine the issue of the imposition of the penalty. If the 609 trial jury has been waived, or if the defendant pleaded guilty,

20251804er

the sentencing proceeding shall be conducted before a jury impaneled for that purpose, unless waived by the defendant. In the proceeding, evidence may be presented as to any matter that the court deems relevant to the nature of the crime and the character of the defendant and shall include matters relating to any of the aggravating factors enumerated in subsection (7) and for which notice has been provided pursuant to s. 787.06(5) or mitigating circumstances enumerated in subsection (8). Any such evidence that the court deems to have probative value may be received, regardless of its admissibility under the exclusionary rules of evidence, provided the defendant is accorded a fair opportunity to rebut any hearsay statements. However, this subsection may not be construed to authorize the introduction of any evidence secured in violation of the United States Constitution or the State Constitution. The state and the defendant or the defendant's counsel shall be permitted to present argument for or against a sentence of death.

(3) FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDED SENTENCE BY THE JURY.—This subsection applies only if the defendant has not waived his or her right to a sentencing proceeding by a jury.

(a) After hearing all of the evidence presented regarding aggravating factors and mitigating circumstances, the jury shall deliberate and determine if the state has proven, beyond a reasonable doubt, the existence of at least two aggravating factors set forth in subsection (7).

(b) The jury shall return findings identifying each aggravating factor found to exist. A finding that at least two aggravating factors exist must be unanimous. If the jury:

1. Does not unanimously find at least two aggravating

20251804er

639 factors, the defendant is ineligible for a sentence of death.

640 2. Unanimously finds at least two aggravating factors, the 641 defendant is eligible for a sentence of death and the jury shall 642 make a recommendation to the court as to whether the defendant
643 shall be sentenced to life imprisonment without the possibility 644 of parole or to death. The recommendation shall be based on a 645 weighing of all of the following:

646 a. Whether sufficient aggravating factors exist.

647 b. Whether aggravating factors exist which outweigh the 648 mitigating circumstances found to exist.

649 c. Based on the considerations in sub-subparagraphs a. and 650 b., whether the defendant should be sentenced to life
651 imprisonment without the possibility of parole or to death.

652 (c) If at least eight jurors determine that the defendant 653 should be sentenced to death, the jury's recommendation to the 654 court shall be a sentence of death. If fewer than eight jurors 655 determine that the defendant should be sentenced to death, the 656 jury's recommendation to the court shall be a sentence of life 657 imprisonment without the possibility of parole.

658 (4) IMPOSITION OF SENTENCE OF LIFE IMPRISONMENT OR DEATH.—

659 (a) If the jury has recommended a sentence of:

660 1. Life imprisonment without the possibility of parole, the 661 court shall impose the recommended sentence of life imprisonment 662 without the possibility of parole.

663 2. Death, the court, after considering each aggravating
664 factor found by the jury and all mitigating circumstances, may 665 impose a sentence of life imprisonment without the possibility 666 of parole or a sentence of death. The court may consider only an 667 aggravating factor that was unanimously found to exist by the jury. The court may impose a sentence of death only if the jury unanimously found at least two aggravating factors beyond a reasonable doubt.

(b) If the defendant waived his or her right to a sentencing proceeding by a jury, the court, after considering all aggravating factors and mitigating circumstances, may impose a sentence of life imprisonment without the possibility of parole or a sentence of death. The court may impose a sentence of death only if the court finds that at least two aggravating factors have been proven to exist beyond a reasonable doubt.

(5) ORDER OF THE COURT IN SUPPORT OF SENTENCE OF LIFE IMPRISONMENT OR DEATH.—In each case in which the court imposes a sentence of life imprisonment without the possibility of parole or a sentence of death, the court shall, considering the records of the trial and the sentencing proceedings, enter a written order addressing the aggravating factors set forth in subsection (7) found to exist, the mitigating circumstances in subsection (8) reasonably established by the evidence, whether there are sufficient aggravating factors to warrant the death penalty, and whether the aggravating factors outweigh the mitigating circumstances reasonably established by the evidence. The court shall include in its written order the reasons for not accepting the jury's recommended sentence, if applicable. If the court does not issue its order requiring the death sentence within 30 days after the rendition of the judgment and sentence, the court shall impose a sentence of life imprisonment without the possibility of parole in accordance with s. 775.082.

(6) REVIEW OF JUDGMENT AND SENTENCE.—The judgment of conviction and sentence of death shall be subject to automatic review by the Supreme Court and disposition rendered within 2 years after the filing of a notice of appeal. Such review by the Supreme Court shall have priority over all other cases and shall be heard in accordance with rules adopted by the Supreme Court.

(7) AGGRAVATING FACTORS.—Aggravating factors shall be limited to the following:

(a) The capital felony was committed by a person previously convicted of a felony violation under s. 787.06 and under sentence of imprisonment or placed on community control or on felony probation.

(b) The defendant was previously convicted of another capital felony or of a felony involving the use or threat of violence to the person.

(c) The capital felony was committed by a person designated as a sexual predator pursuant to s. 775.21 or a person previously designated as a sexual predator who had the sexual predator designation removed.

(d) The capital felony was committed by a sexual offender who is required to register pursuant to s. 943.0435 or a person previously required to register as a sexual offender who had such requirement removed.

(e) The defendant knowingly created a great risk of death to one or more persons such that participation in the offense constituted reckless indifference or disregard for human life.

(f) The defendant used a firearm or knowingly directed, advised, authorized, or assisted another to use a firearm to threaten, intimidate, assault, or injure a person in committing the offense or in furtherance of the offense.

(g) The capital felony was especially heinous, atrocious,

20251804er

726 or cruel.

727 (h) The victim of the capital felony was particularly 728 vulnerable due to age or disability, or because the defendant 729 stood in a position of familial or custodial authority over the 730 victim.

731 (i) The capital felony was committed by a person subject to 732 an injunction issued pursuant to s. 741.30 or s. 784.046, or a 733 foreign protection order accorded full faith and credit pursuant 734 to s. 741.315, and was committed against the petitioner who 735 obtained the injunction or protection order or any spouse,
736 child, sibling, or parent of the petitioner.

737 (j) The victim of the capital felony sustained serious 738 bodily injury.

739 (8) MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES.—Mitigating circumstances
740 shall include the following:

741 (a) The defendant has no significant history of prior 742 criminal activity.

743 (b) The capital felony was committed while the defendant
744 was under the influence of extreme mental or emotional 745 disturbance.

746 (c) The defendant was an accomplice in the capital felony
747 committed by another person, and the defendant's participation 748 was relatively minor.

749 (d) The defendant was under extreme duress or under the 750 substantial domination of another person.

751 (e) The capacity of the defendant to appreciate the 752 criminality of her or his conduct or to conform his or her 753 conduct to the requirements of law was substantially impaired.

754 (f) The age of the defendant at the time of the offense.

20251804er

755       (g) The defendant could not have reasonably foreseen that 756 his or her conduct in the course of the commission of the 757 offense would cause or would create a grave risk of death to one 758 or more persons.

759       (h) The existence of any other factors in the defendant's
760 background that would mitigate against imposition of the death 761 penalty.

762       (9) VICTIM IMPACT EVIDENCE.—Once the prosecution has 763 provided evidence of the existence of two or more aggravating 764 factors as described in subsection (7), the prosecution may 765 introduce and subsequently argue victim impact evidence to the 766 jury. Such evidence shall be designed to demonstrate the 767 victim's uniqueness as an individual human being and the 768 physical and psychological harm to the victim. Characterizations 769 and opinions about the crime, the defendant, and the appropriate 770 sentence may not be permitted as a part of victim impact 771 evidence.

772       (10) CONSTITUTIONALITY.—Notwithstanding s. 775.082(2) or s.
773 775.15, or any other provision of law, a sentence of death shall 774 be imposed under this section notwithstanding existing case law 775 which holds that such a sentence is unconstitutional under the 776 State Constitution and the United States Constitution. In any 777 case for which the Florida Supreme Court or the United States
778 Supreme Court reviews a sentence of death imposed pursuant to 779 this section, and in making such a review reconsiders the prior 780 holdings in Buford v. State of Florida, 403 So. 2d 943 (Fla.
781 1981), and Kennedy v. Louisiana, 554 U.S. 407 (2008), and 782 determines that a sentence of death remains unconstitutional,
783 the court having jurisdiction over the person previously

20251804er

sentenced to death shall cause such person to be brought before the court, and the court shall sentence such person to life imprisonment as provided in s. 775.082(1).

(11) APPLICABILITY.—This section applies to any capital felony under s. 787.06(5) which is committed on or after October 1, 2025.

Section 9. Paragraph (o) is added to subsection (1) of section 924.07, Florida Statutes, to read:

924.07 Appeal by state.—

(1) The state may appeal from:

(o) The sentence in a case of capital human trafficking of vulnerable persons for sexual exploitation on the ground that it resulted from the circuit court's failure to comply with sentencing procedures under s. 921.1427, including by striking a notice of intent to seek the death penalty, refusing to impanel a capital jury, or otherwise granting relief that prevents the state from seeking a sentence of death.

Section 10. Paragraph (h) of subsection (1) of section
943.0435, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

943.0435 Sexual offenders required to register with the department; penalty.—

Reasonable visitation may be unsupervised and, where appropriate and feasible, may be frequent and continuing. Any order for visitation or other contact must conform to the provisions of s. 39.0139.

(6) In determining whether grandparental visitation is not in the child's best interest, consideration may be given to the following:

(d) When the parent of a child is incarcerated and either:

1. The period of time for which the parent is expected to be incarcerated will constitute a significant portion of the child's minority. When determining whether the period of time is significant, the court shall consider the child's age and the child's need for a permanent and stable home. The period of time begins on the date that the parent enters into incarceration;

2. The incarcerated parent has been determined by the court to be a violent career criminal as defined in s. 775.084, a habitual violent felony offender as defined in s. 775.084, or a sexual predator as defined in s. 775.21; has been convicted of first degree or second degree murder in violation of s. 782.04 or a sexual battery that constitutes a capital, life, or first degree felony violation of s. 794.011; or has been convicted of an offense in another jurisdiction which is substantially similar to one of the offenses listed in this paragraph. As used in this section, the term "substantially similar offense" means any offense that is substantially similar in elements and penalties to one of those listed in this subparagraph, and that is in violation of a law of any other jurisdiction, whether that of another state, the District of Columbia, the United States or any possession or territory thereof, or any foreign jurisdiction; or

3. The court determines by clear and convincing evidence that continuing the parental relationship with the incarcerated parent would be harmful to the child and, for this reason, that termination of the parental rights of the incarcerated parent is in the best interest of the child. When determining harm, the court shall consider the following factors:

- a. The age of the child.
- b. The relationship between the child and the parent.
- c. The nature of the parent's current and past provision for the child's developmental, cognitive, psychological, and physical needs.
- d. The parent's history of criminal behavior, which may

63.089 Proceeding to terminate parental rights pending adoption; hearing; grounds; dismissal of petition; judgment.—

(4) FINDING OF ABANDONMENT.—A finding of abandonment resulting in a termination of parental rights must be based upon clear and convincing evidence that a parent or person having legal custody has abandoned the child in accordance with the definition contained in s. 63.032. A finding of abandonment may also be based upon emotional abuse or a refusal to provide reasonable financial support, when able, to a birth mother during her pregnancy or on whether the person alleged to have abandoned the child, while being able, failed to establish contact with the child or accept responsibility for the child's welfare.

20251804er

(b) The child has been abandoned when the parent of a child is incarcerated on or after October 1, 2001, in a federal, state, or county correctional institution and:

1. The period of time for which the parent has been or is expected to be incarcerated will constitute a significant portion of the child's minority. In determining whether the period of time is significant, the court shall consider the child's age and the child's need for a permanent and stable home. The period of time begins on the date that the parent enters into incarceration;

2. The incarcerated parent has been determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be a violent career criminal as defined in s. 775.084, a habitual violent felony offender as defined in s. 775.084, convicted of child abuse as defined in s. 827.03, or a sexual predator as defined in s. 775.21; has been convicted of first degree or second degree murder in violation of s. 782.04 or a sexual battery that constitutes a capital, life, or first degree felony violation of s. 794.011; or has been convicted of a substantially similar offense in another jurisdiction. As used in this section, the term "substantially similar offense" means any offense that is substantially similar in elements and penalties to one of those listed in this subparagraph, and that is in violation of a law of any other jurisdiction, whether that of another state, the District of Columbia, the United States or any possession or territory

thereof, or any foreign jurisdiction; or

3. The court determines by clear and convincing evidence that continuing the parental relationship with the incarcerated parent would be harmful to the child and, for this reason, termination of the parental rights of the incarcerated parent is in the best interests of the child.

Section 23. For the purpose of incorporating the amendment made by this act to section 775.21, Florida Statutes, in a reference thereto, subsection (3) of section 63.092, Florida Statutes, is reenacted to read:

63.092 Report to the court of intended placement by an adoption entity; at-risk placement; preliminary study.—

(3) PRELIMINARY HOME STUDY.—Before placing the minor in the intended adoptive home, a preliminary home study must be performed by a licensed child-placing agency, a child-caring agency registered under s. 409.176, a licensed professional, or an agency described in s. 61.20(2), unless the adoptee is an adult or the petitioner is a stepparent or a relative. If the adoptee is an adult or the petitioner is a stepparent or a relative, a preliminary home study may be required by the court for good cause shown. The department is required to perform the preliminary home study only if there is no licensed child-placing agency, child-caring agency registered under s. 409.176, licensed professional, or agency described in s. 61.20(2), in the county where the prospective adoptive parents reside. The preliminary home study must be made to determine the suitability of the intended adoptive parents and may be completed before identification of a prospective adoptive minor. If the identified prospective adoptive minor is in the custody of the department, a preliminary home study must be completed within 30 days after it is initiated. A favorable preliminary home study is valid for 1 year after the date of its completion. Upon its completion, a signed copy of the home study must be provided to the intended adoptive parents who were the subject of the home study. A minor may not be placed in an intended adoptive home before a favorable preliminary home study is completed unless the adoptive home is also a licensed foster home under s. 409.175. The preliminary home study must include, at a minimum:

(a) An interview with the intended adoptive parents.

(b) Records checks of the department's central abuse registry, which the department shall provide to the entity conducting the preliminary home study, and criminal records correspondence checks under s. 39.0138 through the Department of Law Enforcement on the intended adoptive parents.

(c) An assessment of the physical environment of the home.

(d) A determination of the financial security of the intended adoptive parents.

(e) Documentation of counseling and education of the intended adoptive parents on adoptive parenting, as determined by the entity conducting the preliminary home study. The training specified in s. 409.175(14) shall only be required for persons who adopt children from the department.

(f) Documentation that information on adoption and the adoption process has been provided to the intended adoptive parents.

(g) Documentation that information on support services available in the community has been provided to the intended adoptive parents.

20251804er

(h) A copy of each signed acknowledgment of receipt of disclosure required by s. 63.085.

If the preliminary home study is favorable, a minor may be placed in the home pending entry of the judgment of adoption. A minor may not be placed in the home if the preliminary home study is unfavorable. If the preliminary home study is unfavorable, the adoption entity may, within 20 days after receipt of a copy of the written recommendation, petition the court to determine the suitability of the intended adoptive home. A determination as to suitability under this subsection does not act as a presumption of suitability at the final hearing. In determining the suitability of the intended adoptive home, the court must consider the totality of the circumstances in the home. A minor may not be placed in a home in which there resides any person determined by the court to be a sexual predator as defined in s. 775.21 or to have been convicted of an offense listed in s. 63.089(4)(b)2.

Section 24. For the purpose of incorporating the amendment made by this act to section 775.21, Florida Statutes, in references thereto, paragraph (i) of subsection (3) and subsection (6) of section 68.07, Florida Statutes, are reenacted to read:

68.07 Change of name.—

(3) Each petition shall be verified and show:

(i) Whether the petitioner has ever been required to register as a sexual predator under s. 775.21 or as a sexual offender under s. 943.0435.

(6) The clerk of the court must, within 5 business days

20251804er

1277 after the filing of the final judgment, send a report of the 1278 judgment to the Department of Law Enforcement on a form to be 1279 furnished by that department. If the petitioner is required to 1280 register as a sexual predator or a sexual offender pursuant to 1281 s. 775.21 or s. 943.0435, the clerk of court shall 1282 electronically notify the Department of Law Enforcement of the 1283 name change, in a manner prescribed by that department, within 2
1284 business days after the filing of the final judgment. The 1285 Department of Law Enforcement must send a copy of the report to 1286 the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles, which may 1287 be delivered by electronic transmission. The report must contain 1288 sufficient information to identify the petitioner, including the 1289 results of the criminal history records check if applicable, the 1290 new name of the petitioner, and the file number of the judgment.
1291 The Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles shall 1292 monitor the records of any sexual predator or sexual offender
1293 whose name has been provided to it by the Department of Law
1294 Enforcement. If the sexual predator or sexual offender does not
1295 obtain a replacement driver license or identification card
1296 within the required time as specified in s. 775.21 or s.
1297 943.0435, the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles
1298 shall notify the Department of Law Enforcement. The Department
1299 of Law Enforcement shall notify applicable law enforcement
1300 agencies of the predator's or offender's failure to comply with 1301 registration requirements. Any information retained by the 1302 Department of Law Enforcement and the Department of Highway
1303 Safety and Motor Vehicles may be revised or supplemented by said
1304 departments to reflect changes made by the final judgment. With 1305 respect to a person convicted of a felony in another state or of a federal offense, the Department of Law Enforcement must send the report to the respective state's office of law enforcement records or to the office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The Department of Law Enforcement may forward the report to any other law enforcement agency it believes may retain information related to the petitioner.

20251804er

This paragraph does not limit the applicable board from considering an applicant's criminal history that includes a crime listed in s. 775.21(4)(a)1. or s. 776.08 at any time, but only if such criminal history has been found to relate to the practice of the applicable profession.

Section 44. For the purpose of incorporating the amendment made by this act to section 775.21, Florida Statutes, in references thereto, paragraph (c) of subsection (2) and subsection (10) of section 947.1405, Florida Statutes, are reenacted to read:

947.1405 Conditional release program.—

(2) Any inmate who:

(c) Is found to be a sexual predator under s. 775.21 or former s. 775.23,

20251804er

1741
1742 shall, upon reaching the tentative release date or provisional 1743 release date, whichever is earlier, as established by the 1744 Department of Corrections, be released under supervision subject
1745 to specified terms and conditions, including payment of the cost 1746 of supervision pursuant to s. 948.09. Such supervision shall be 1747 applicable to all sentences within the overall term of sentences
1748 if an inmate's overall term of sentences includes one or more 1749 sentences that are eligible for conditional release supervision 1750 as provided herein. Effective July 1, 1994, and applicable for 1751 offenses committed on or after that date, the commission may 1752 require, as a condition of conditional release, that the 1753 releasee make payment of the debt due and owing to a county or 1754 municipal detention facility under s. 951.032 for medical care, 1755 treatment, hospitalization, or transportation received by the 1756 releasee while in that detention facility. The commission, in 1757 determining whether to order such repayment and the amount of 1758 such repayment, shall consider the amount of the debt, whether 1759 there was any fault of the institution for the medical expenses
1760 incurred, the financial resources of the releasee, the present 1761 and potential future financial needs and earning ability of the 1762 releasee, and dependents, and other appropriate factors. If any 1763 inmate placed on conditional release supervision is also subject
1764 to probation or community control, resulting from a probationary 1765 or community control split sentence within the overall term of 1766 sentences, the Department of Corrections shall supervise such 1767 person according to the conditions imposed by the court and the 1768 commission shall defer to such supervision. If the court revokes 1769 probation or community control and resentsences the offender to a term of incarceration, such revocation also constitutes a sufficient basis for the revocation of the conditional release supervision on any nonprobationary or noncommunity control sentence without further hearing by the commission. If any such supervision on any nonprobationary or noncommunity control sentence is revoked, such revocation may result in a forfeiture of all gain-time, and the commission may revoke the resulting deferred conditional release supervision or take other action it considers appropriate. If the term of conditional release supervision exceeds that of the probation or community control, then, upon expiration of the probation or community control, authority for the supervision shall revert to the commission and the supervision shall be subject to the conditions imposed by the commission. A panel of no fewer than two commissioners shall establish the terms and conditions of any such release. If the offense was a controlled substance violation, the conditions shall include a requirement that the offender submit to random substance abuse testing intermittently throughout the term of conditional release supervision, upon the direction of the correctional probation officer as defined in s. 943.10(3). The commission shall also determine whether the terms and conditions of such release have been violated and whether such violation warrants revocation of the conditional release.

(10) Effective for a releasee whose crime was committed on or after September 1, 2005, in violation of chapter 794, s. 800.04(4), (5), or (6), s. 827.071, or s. 847.0145, and the unlawful activity involved a victim who was 15 years of age or younger and the offender is 18 years of age or older or for a releasee who is designated as a sexual predator pursuant to s.

775.21, in addition to any other provision of this section, the commission must order electronic monitoring for the duration of the releasee's supervision.

Section 45. For the purpose of incorporating the amendment made by this act to section 775.21, Florida Statutes, in a reference thereto, paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section 948.013, Florida Statutes, is reenacted to read:

948.013 Administrative probation.—

(b) Effective for an offense committed on or after October 1, 2017, a person is ineligible for placement on administrative probation if the person is sentenced to or is serving a term of probation or community control, regardless of the conviction or adjudication, for committing, or attempting, conspiring, or soliciting to commit, any of the felony offenses described in s. 775.21(4)(a)1.a. or b. or s. 943.0435(1)(h)1.a.

Section 46. For the purpose of incorporating the amendment made by this act to section 775.21, Florida Statutes, in a reference thereto, paragraph (f) of subsection (2) of section 948.05, Florida Statutes, is reenacted to read:

948.05 Court to admonish or commend probationer or offender in community control; graduated incentives.—

(2) The department shall implement a system of graduated incentives to promote compliance with the terms of supervision, encourage educational achievement and stable employment, and prioritize the highest levels of supervision for probationers or offenders presenting the greatest risk of recidivism.

(f) A probationer or offender in community control who is placed under supervision for committing or attempting, soliciting, or conspiring to commit a violation of any felony offense described in s. 775.21(4)(a)1.a. or b. or s. 943.0435(1)(h)1.a., or who qualifies as a violent felony offender of special concern under s. 948.06(8)(b) is not eligible for any reduction of his or her term of supervision under this section.

Section 47. For the purpose of incorporating the amendment made by this act to section 775.21, Florida Statutes, in references thereto, subsection (4) and paragraphs (b) and (d) of subsection (8) of section 948.06, Florida Statutes, are reenacted to read:

948.06 Violation of probation or community control; revocation; modification; continuance; failure to pay restitution or cost of supervision.—

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a felony probationer or an offender in community control who is arrested for violating his or her probation or community control in a material respect may be taken before the court in the county or circuit in which the probationer or offender was arrested. That court shall advise him or her of the charge of a violation and, if such charge is admitted, shall cause him or her to be brought before the court that granted the probation or community control. If the violation is not admitted by the probationer or offender, the court may commit him or her or release him or her with or without bail to await further hearing. However, if the probationer or offender is under supervision for any criminal offense proscribed in chapter 794, s. 800.04(4), (5), (6), s. 827.071, or s. 847.0145, or is a registered sexual predator or a registered sexual offender, or

is under supervision for a criminal offense for which he or she would meet the registration criteria in s. 775.21, s. 943.0435, or s. 944.607 but for the effective date of those sections, the court must make a finding that the probationer or offender is not a danger to the public prior to release with or without bail. In determining the danger posed by the offender's or probationer's release, the court may consider the nature and circumstances of the violation and any new offenses charged; the offender's or probationer's past and present conduct, including convictions of crimes; any record of arrests without conviction for crimes involving violence or sexual crimes; any other evidence of allegations of unlawful sexual conduct or the use of violence by the offender or probationer; the offender's or probationer's family ties, length of residence in the community, employment history, and mental condition; his or her history and conduct during the probation or community control supervision from which the violation arises and any other previous supervisions, including disciplinary records of previous incarcerations; the likelihood that the offender or probationer will engage again in a criminal course of conduct; the weight of the evidence against the offender or probationer; and any other facts the court considers relevant. The court, as soon as is practicable, shall give the probationer or offender an opportunity to be fully heard on his or her behalf in person or by counsel. After the hearing, the court shall make findings of fact and forward the findings to the court that granted the probation or community control and to the probationer or offender or his or her attorney. The findings of fact by the hearing court are binding on the court that granted the probation or community control. Upon the probationer or offender being brought before it, the court that granted the probation or community control may revoke, modify, or continue the probation or community control or may place the probationer into community control as provided in this section. However, the probationer or offender shall not be released and shall not be admitted to bail, but shall be brought before the court that granted the probation or community control if any violation of felony probation or community control other than a failure to pay costs or fines or make restitution payments is alleged to have been committed by:

(a) A violent felony offender of special concern, as defined in this section;

(b) A person who is on felony probation or community control for any offense committed on or after the effective date of this act and who is arrested for a qualifying offense as defined in this section; or

(c) A person who is on felony probation or community control and has previously been found by a court to be a habitual violent felony offender as defined in s. 775.084(1)(b), a three-time violent felony offender as defined in s. 775.084(1)(c), or a sexual predator under s. 775.21, and who is arrested for committing a qualifying offense as defined in this section on or after the effective date of this act.

(b) For purposes of this section and ss. 903.0351, 948.064, and 921.0024, the term "violent felony offender of special concern" means a person who is on:

1. Felony probation or community control related to the commission of a qualifying offense committed on or after the effective date of this act;

20251804er

2. Felony probation or community control for any offense committed on or after the effective date of this act, and has previously been convicted of a qualifying offense;

If the qualified practitioner determines that sexual offender treatment is needed and recommends treatment, the probationer or community controllee must successfully complete and pay for the treatment. Such treatment must be obtained from a qualified practitioner as defined in s. 948.001. Treatment may not be administered by a qualified practitioner who has been convicted or adjudicated delinquent of committing, or attempting, soliciting, or conspiring to commit, any offense that is listed in s. 943.0435(1)(h)1.a.(I).

Section 54. For the purpose of incorporating the amendment made by this act to section 943.0435, Florida Statutes, in references thereto, paragraph (c) of subsection (2) and paragraph (c) of subsection (9) of section 61.13, Florida Statutes, are reenacted to read:

61.13 Support of children; parenting and time-sharing; powers of court.—

(c) The court shall determine all matters relating to parenting and time-sharing of each minor child of the parties in accordance with the best interests of the child and in accordance with the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, except that modification of a parenting plan and time-sharing schedule requires a showing of a substantial and material change of circumstances.

1. It is the public policy of this state that each minor child has frequent and continuing contact with both parents after the parents separate or the marriage of the parties is dissolved and to encourage parents to share the rights and responsibilities, and joys, of childrearing. Unless otherwise provided in this section or agreed to by the parties, there is a rebuttable presumption that equal time-sharing of a minor child is in the best interests of the minor child. To rebut this presumption, a party must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that equal time-sharing is not in the best interests of the minor child. Except when a time-sharing schedule is agreed to by the parties and approved by the court, the court must evaluate all of the factors set forth in subsection (3) and make specific written findings of fact when creating or modifying a time-sharing schedule.

2. The court shall order that the parental responsibility for a minor child be shared by both parents unless the court finds that shared parental responsibility would be detrimental to the child. In determining detriment to the child, the court shall consider:

- a. Evidence of domestic violence, as defined in s. 741.28;
- b. Whether either parent has or has had reasonable cause to believe that he or she or his or her minor child or children are or have been in imminent danger of becoming victims of an act of domestic violence as defined in s. 741.28 or sexual violence as defined in s. 784.046(1)(c) by the other parent against the parent or against the child or children whom the parents share in common regardless of whether a cause of action has been brought or is currently pending in the court;
- c. Whether either parent has or has had reasonable cause to believe that his or her minor child or children are or have been in imminent danger of becoming victims of an act of abuse, abandonment, or neglect, as those terms are defined in s. 39.01, by the other parent against the child or children whom the parents share in common regardless of whether a cause of action has been brought or is currently pending in the court; and

20251804er

d. Any other relevant factors.

3. The following evidence creates a rebuttable presumption that shared parental responsibility is detrimental to the child:

a. A parent has been convicted of a misdemeanor of the first degree or higher involving domestic violence, as defined in s. 741.28 and chapter 775;

b. A parent meets the criteria of s. 39.806(1)(d); or

c. A parent has been convicted of or had adjudication withheld for an offense enumerated in s. 943.0435(1)(h)1.a., and at the time of the offense:

(I) The parent was 18 years of age or older.

(II) The victim was under 18 years of age or the parent believed the victim to be under 18 years of age.

If the presumption is not rebutted after the convicted parent is advised by the court that the presumption exists, shared parental responsibility, including time-sharing with the child, and decisions made regarding the child, may not be granted to the convicted parent. However, the convicted parent is not relieved of any obligation to provide financial support. If the court determines that shared parental responsibility would be detrimental to the child, it may order sole parental responsibility and make such arrangements for time-sharing as specified in the parenting plan as will best protect the child or abused spouse from further harm. Whether or not there is a conviction of any offense of domestic violence or child abuse or the existence of an injunction for protection against domestic violence, the court shall consider evidence of domestic violence or child abuse as evidence of detriment to the child.

4. In ordering shared parental responsibility, the court may consider the expressed desires of the parents and may grant to one party the ultimate responsibility over specific aspects of the child's welfare or may divide those responsibilities between the parties based on the best interests of the child. Areas of responsibility may include education, health care, and any other responsibilities that the court finds unique to a particular family.

5. The court shall order sole parental responsibility for a minor child to one parent, with or without time-sharing with the other parent if it is in the best interests of the minor child.

6. There is a rebuttable presumption against granting time-sharing with a minor child if a parent has been convicted of or had adjudication withheld for an offense enumerated in s.

943.0435(1)(h)1.a., and at the time of the offense:

a. The parent was 18 years of age or older.

b. The victim was under 18 years of age or the parent believed the victim to be under 18 years of age.

A parent may rebut the presumption upon a specific finding in writing by the court that the parent poses no significant risk of harm to the child and that time-sharing is in the best interests of the minor child. If the presumption is rebutted, the court must consider all time-sharing factors in subsection (3) when developing a time-sharing schedule.

20251804er

7. Access to records and information pertaining to a minor child, including, but not limited to, medical, dental, and school records, may not be denied to either parent. Full rights under this subparagraph apply to either parent unless a court order specifically revokes these rights, including any restrictions on these rights as provided in a domestic violence injunction. A parent having rights under this subparagraph has the same rights upon request as to form, substance, and manner of access as are available to the other parent of a child, including, without limitation, the right to in-person communication with medical, dental, and education providers.

(9)

(c) A court may not order visitation at a recovery residence if any resident of the recovery residence is currently required to register as a sexual predator under s. 775.21 or as a sexual offender under s. 943.0435.

Section 55. For the purpose of incorporating the amendment made by this act to section 943.0435, Florida Statutes, in references thereto, paragraph (i) of subsection (3) and subsection (6) of section 68.07, Florida Statutes, are reenacted to read:

68.07 Change of name.—

(3) Each petition shall be verified and show:

(i) Whether the petitioner has ever been required to register as a sexual predator under s. 775.21 or as a sexual offender under s. 943.0435.

(6) The clerk of the court must, within 5 business days after the filing of the final judgment, send a report of the judgment to the Department of Law Enforcement on a form to be

20251804er

2234 furnished by that department. If the petitioner is required to 2235 register as a sexual predator or a sexual offender pursuant to 2236 s. 775.21 or s. 943.0435, the clerk of court shall 2237 electronically notify the Department of Law Enforcement of the 2238 name change, in a manner prescribed by that department, within 2 2239 business days after the filing of the final judgment. The 2240 Department of Law Enforcement must send a copy of the report to 2241 the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles, which may 2242 be delivered by electronic transmission. The report must contain 2243 sufficient information to identify the petitioner, including the 2244 results of the criminal history records check if applicable, the 2245 new name of the petitioner, and the file number of the judgment.
2246 The Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles shall
2247 monitor the records of any sexual predator or sexual offender
2248 whose name has been provided to it by the Department of Law
2249 Enforcement. If the sexual predator or sexual offender does not
2250 obtain a replacement driver license or identification card 2251 within the required time as specified in s. 775.21 or s.
2252 943.0435, the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles
2253 shall notify the Department of Law Enforcement. The Department
2254 of Law Enforcement shall notify applicable law enforcement
2255 agencies of the predator's or offender's failure to comply with 2256 registration requirements. Any information retained by the 2257 Department of Law Enforcement and the Department of Highway
2258 Safety and Motor Vehicles may be revised or supplemented by said 2259 departments to reflect changes made by the final judgment. With 2260 respect to a person convicted of a felony in another state or of 2261 a federal offense, the Department of Law Enforcement must send 2262 the report to the respective state's office of law enforcement

20251804er

records or to the office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.
The Department of Law Enforcement may forward the report to any other law enforcement agency it believes may retain information related to the petitioner.

(f) A probationer or offender in community control who is placed under supervision for committing or attempting,

948.06 Violation of probation or community control; revocation; modification; continuance; failure to pay restitution or cost of supervision.—

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a felony probationer or an offender in community control who is arrested for violating his or her probation or community control in a material respect may be taken before the court in the county or circuit in which the probationer or offender was arrested. That court shall advise him or her of the charge of a violation and, if such charge is admitted, shall cause him or her to be brought before the court that granted the probation or community control. If the violation is not admitted by the probationer or offender, the court may commit him or her or release him or her with or without bail to await further hearing. However, if the probationer or offender is under supervision for any criminal offense proscribed in chapter 794, s. 800.04(4), (5), (6), s. 827.071, or s. 847.0145, or is a registered sexual predator or a registered sexual offender, or is under supervision for a criminal offense for which he or she

2814 would meet the registration criteria in s. 775.21, s. 943.0435, 2815 or s. 944.607 but for the effective date of those sections, the 2816 court must make a finding that the probationer or offender is 2817 not a danger to the public prior to release with or without 2818 bail. In determining the danger posed by the offender's or 2819 probationer's release, the court may consider the nature and 2820 circumstances of the violation and any new offenses charged; the 2821 offender's or probationer's past and present conduct, including 2822 convictions of crimes; any record of arrests without conviction 2823 for crimes involving violence or sexual crimes; any other 2824 evidence of allegations of unlawful sexual conduct or the use of 2825 violence by the offender or probationer; the offender's or 2826 probationer's family ties, length of residence in the community, 2827 employment history, and mental condition; his or her history and 2828 conduct during the probation or community control supervision 2829 from which the violation arises and any other previous 2830 supervisions, including disciplinary records of previous 2831 incarcerations; the likelihood that the offender or probationer 2832 will engage again in a criminal course of conduct; the weight of 2833 the evidence against the offender or probationer; and any other 2834 facts the court considers relevant. The court, as soon as is 2835 practicable, shall give the probationer or offender an 2836 opportunity to be fully heard on his or her behalf in person or 2837 by counsel. After the hearing, the court shall make findings of 2838 fact and forward the findings to the court that granted the 2839 probation or community control and to the probationer or 2840 offender or his or her attorney. The findings of fact by the 2841 hearing court are binding on the court that granted the 2842 probation or community control. Upon the probationer or offender being brought before it, the court that granted the probation or community control may revoke, modify, or continue the probation or community control or may place the probationer into community control as provided in this section. However, the probationer or offender shall not be released and shall not be admitted to bail, but shall be brought before the court that granted the probation or community control if any violation of felony probation or community control other than a failure to pay costs or fines or make restitution payments is alleged to have been committed by:

20251804er

(a) A violent felony offender of special concern, as defined in this section;

(b) A person who is on felony probation or community control for any offense committed on or after the effective date of this act and who is arrested for a qualifying offense as defined in this section; or

948.063 Violations of probation or community control by designated sexual offenders and sexual predators.—

(1) If probation or community control for any felony offense is revoked by the court pursuant to s. 948.06(2)(e) and the offender is designated as a sexual offender pursuant to s. 943.0435 or s. 944.607 or as a sexual predator pursuant to s. 775.21 for unlawful sexual activity involving a victim 15 years of age or younger and the offender is 18 years of age or older, and if the court imposes a subsequent term of supervision following the revocation of probation or community control, the court must order electronic monitoring as a condition of the subsequent term of probation or community control.

(2) If the probationer or offender is required to register as a sexual predator under s. 775.21 or as a sexual offender under s. 943.0435 or s. 944.607 for unlawful sexual activity involving a victim 15 years of age or younger and the probationer or offender is 18 years of age or older and has violated the conditions of his or her probation or community control, but the court does not revoke the probation or community control, the court shall nevertheless modify the probation or community control to include electronic monitoring for any probationer or offender not then subject to electronic monitoring.

(4) In addition to all other conditions imposed, for a probationer or community controllee who is subject to supervision for a crime that was committed on or after May 26, 2010, and who has been convicted at any time of committing, or attempting, soliciting, or conspiring to commit, any of the criminal offenses listed in s. 943.0435(1)(h)1.a.(I), or a similar offense in another jurisdiction, against a victim who was under the age of 18 at the time of the offense; if the offender has not received a pardon for any felony or similar law of another jurisdiction necessary for the operation of this subsection, if a conviction of a felony or similar law of another jurisdiction necessary for the operation of this subsection has not been set aside in any postconviction proceeding, or if the offender has not been removed from the requirement to register as a sexual offender or sexual predator pursuant to s. 943.04354, the court must impose the following conditions:

(a) A prohibition on visiting schools, child care facilities, parks, and playgrounds, without prior approval from the offender's supervising officer. The court may also designate additional locations to protect a victim. The prohibition ordered under this paragraph does not prohibit the offender from visiting a school, child care facility, park, or playground for the sole purpose of attending a religious service as defined in s. 775.0861 or picking up or dropping off the offender's children or grandchildren at a child care facility or school.

(b) A prohibition on distributing candy or other items to

If the qualified practitioner determines that sexual offender treatment is needed and recommends treatment, the probationer or community controllee must successfully complete and pay for the treatment. Such treatment must be obtained from a qualified practitioner as defined in s. 948.001. Treatment may not be administered by a qualified practitioner who has been convicted or adjudicated delinquent of committing, or attempting, soliciting, or conspiring to commit, any offense that is listed in s. 943.0435(1)(h)1.a.(I).

That court shall advise him or her of the charge of a violation and, if such charge is admitted, shall cause him or her to be brought before the court that granted the probation or community control. If the violation is not admitted by the probationer or offender, the court may commit him or her or release him or her with or without bail to await further hearing. However, if the probationer or offender is under supervision for any criminal offense proscribed in chapter 794, s. 800.04(4), (5), (6), s. 827.071, or s. 847.0145, or is a registered sexual predator or a registered sexual offender, or is under supervision for a criminal offense for which he or she would meet the registration criteria in s. 775.21, s. 943.0435, or s. 944.607 but for the effective date of those sections, the court must make a finding that the probationer or offender is not a danger to the public prior to release with or without bail. The court, as soon as is practicable, shall give the probationer or offender an opportunity to be fully heard on his or her behalf in person or by counsel. After the hearing, the court shall make findings of fact and forward the findings to the court that granted the probation or community control and to the probationer or offender or his or her attorney. The findings of fact by the hearing court are binding on the court that granted the probation or community control. However, the probationer or offender shall not be released and shall not be admitted to bail, but shall be brought before the court that granted the probation or community control if any violation of felony probation or community control other than a failure to pay costs or fines or make restitution payments is alleged to have been committed by:
