58Article II

Right of the people in member states to vote for President and Vice President.—Each member state shall conduct a statewide popular election for President and Vice President of the United States.

Article III

Manner of appointing presidential electors in member states.—Prior to the time set by law for the meeting and voting by the presidential electors, the chief election official of each member state shall determine the number of votes for each presidential slate in each state of the United States and in the District of Columbia in which votes have been cast in a statewide popular election and shall add such votes together to produce a “national popular vote total” for each presidential slate.

The chief election official of each member state shall designate the presidential slate with the largest national popular vote total as the “national popular vote winner.”

The presidential elector certifying official of each member state shall certify the appointment in that official’s own state of the elector slate nominated in that state in association with the national popular vote winner.

At least 6 days before the day fixed by law for the meeting and voting by the presidential electors, each member state shall make a final determination of the number of popular votes cast in the state for each presidential slate and shall communicate an official statement of such determination within 24 hours to 59 the chief election official of each other member state.

60 The chief election official of each member state shall
61 treat as conclusive an official statement containing the number
62 of popular votes in a state for each presidential slate made by 63 the day established by federal law for making a state's final
64 determination conclusive as to the counting of electoral votes
65 by Congress.

66 In event of a tie for the national popular vote winner, the 67 presidential elector certifying official of each member state
68 shall certify the appointment of the elector slate nominated in 69 association with the presidential slate receiving the largest
70 number of popular votes within that official's own state.

71 If, for any reason, the number of presidential electors
72 nominated in a member state in association with the national 73 popular vote winner is less than or greater than that state's 74 number of electoral votes, the presidential candidate on the 75 presidential slate that has been designated as the national 76 popular vote winner shall have the power to nominate the 77 presidential electors for that state and that state's 78 presidential elector certifying official shall certify the 79 appointment of such nominees.

80 The chief election official of each member state shall
81 immediately release to the public all vote counts or statements
82 of votes as they are determined or obtained.

83 This article shall govern the appointment of presidential

Any member state may withdraw from this agreement, except that a withdrawal occurring 6 months or less before the end of a President's term shall not become effective until a President or Vice President shall have been qualified to serve the next term.

The chief executive of each member state shall promptly notify the chief executive of all other states of when this agreement has been enacted and has taken effect in that official's state, when the state has withdrawn from this agreement, and when this agreement takes effect generally.
