457 information poses potential security risks for and allows 458 unwarranted intrusion into the private lives of such current and 459 former medical examiners and their family members. Public
460 availability of such personal identifying and location
461 information may compromise the ability of such current and 462 former medical examiners to carry out their public duties and 463 may disrupt the operation of the medical examiners' offices. The 464 exemption of such personal identifying and location information 465 from public records requirements is necessary to protect the 466 personal privacy and safety of these public servants and their 467 families. The Legislature finds that the harm that may result
468 from the release of such personal identifying and location
469 information outweighs any public benefit that may be derived
470 from the disclosure of the information.

471 Section 3. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.
