411 not remove the street address, legal description, or other 412 information identifying real property within the agency's 413 records so long as a name or personal information otherwise

415 not associated with the property or otherwise displayed in the 416 public records of the agency.

438 8. The exempt status of a home address contained in the 439 Official Records is maintained only during the period when a 440 protected party resides at the dwelling location. Upon 441 conveyance of real property after October 1, 2021, and when such 442 real property no longer constitutes a protected party's home
443 address as defined in sub-subparagraph 1.a., the protected party
444 must submit a written request to release the removed information 445 to the county recorder. The written request to release the

454 can request the county recorder to release a protected
455 decedent's removed information unless there is a related request 456 on file with the county recorder for continued removal of the 457 decedent's information or unless such removal is otherwise 458 prohibited by statute or by court order. The written request to 459 release the removed information upon the death of a protected 460 party must attach the certified copy of a death certificate or 461 court order and must be notarized, must confirm the request for

465 information to be released. A fee may not be charged for the 466 release of any document pursuant to such request.

467       Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public
468 necessity that the partial home addresses of public officers;
469 the partial home addresses and telephone numbers of the spouses
470 and adult children of such officers; the names, home addresses, 471 telephone numbers, and dates of birth of the minor children of 472 such officers; and the names and locations of schools and day
473 care facilities attended by the minor children be made exempt 474 from s. 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, and s. 24(a), Article I of 475 the State Constitution. Public officers are often confronted 476 with making difficult and impactful policy decisions. As a 477 result, public officers and their families may receive threats, 478 including, but not limited to, verbal threats, harassment, and 479 intimidation, as a result of carrying out their official duties.
480 Vulnerability to such threats may discourage residents of this 481 state from seeking elected office in order to protect themselves
482 and their families. The Legislature further finds that the harm 483 that may result from the release of such personal identifying 484 and location information outweighs any public benefit that may 485 be derived from the disclosure of the information.

486       Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2025.
