The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity that the home addresses, telephone numbers, dates of birth, and photographs of current appellate court clerks, deputy clerks, and clerk of the appellate court personnel; the names, home addresses, telephone numbers, dates of birth, and places of employment of the spouses and children of such appellate court

741522

11 clerks, deputy clerks, and clerk of the appellate court
12 personnel; and the names and locations of schools and day care 13 facilities attended by the children of such appellate court
14 clerks, deputy clerks, and clerk of the appellate court 15 personnel, be made exempt from s. 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, 16 and s. 24(a), Article I of the State Constitution. While 17 performing their duties to issue court orders, maintain case 18 dockets, answer telephone calls, respond to correspondence, and 19 interact with visitors to the courthouse, appellate court 20 clerks, deputy clerks, and clerk of the appellate personnel, may 21 incur the ill will of litigants and their associates and 22 families. As a result, current appellate court clerks, deputy 23 clerks, and clerk of the appellate court personnel, and their 24 spouses and children may be targets for acts of revenge. If such 25 identifying and location information is released, the safety of 26 current appellate court clerks, deputy clerks, and clerk of the 27 appellate court personnel, and their spouses and children could 28 be seriously jeopardized. For this reason, the Legislature finds 29 that it is a public necessity that such information be made 30 exempt from public records.
