Amendment No. 1

17 parcel identification numbers, within the 14-business-day period
18 prescribed in subsection (1), the following shall apply:

19 (a) The applicant may engage a private provider, duly 20 registered in the state, to create the required addresses and 21 parcel identification numbers in accordance with applicable
22 local, state, and national addressing standards.

23 (b) Upon completion, the private provider shall submit the 24 assigned addresses and parcel identification numbers to the 25 governing body for verification. The governing body must 26 complete its verification process within 5 business days of 27 receiving the submission.

28 (c) If the governing body fails to verify the submitted
29 addresses and parcel identification numbers within 5 business
30 days, the addresses assigned by the private provider shall be 31 deemed approved for all official purposes.

32 (3) The governing body shall not collect any addressing fee
33 if it fails to issue the required address and parcel
34 identification numbers within the timeframes specified in this 35 section.
