The Broward County Narcotics and Dangerous Drug Intelligence and Enforcement Unit (unit) was created as a voluntary unit to provide county-wide enforcement of narcotics and drug abuse laws through the cooperative participation between all law enforcement agencies within the county.<sup>1</sup> Participating agencies assigned one or more officers, deputies, or investigators to temporary full-time duty with the unit.<sup>2</sup> Participating police agencies could include municipal police departments, the Broward County School Board's Security Division, and the Broward County Sheriff's Office (BCSO).<sup>3</sup>

The Broward County Board of County Commissioners (BOCC), upon a recommendation from the Broward County Sheriff, was responsible for establishing the budget for the office as a part of the annual budget for the sheriff's office.<sup>4</sup> This budget contained the salaries for sheriff deputies assigned to the unit and administrative expenses,

The act required the unit supervisor to submit a quarterly report on the unit’s accomplishments and financial condition to the Broward County BOCC, the Broward County Chiefs of Police Association, and to participating municipalities.<sup>6</sup> The most recent record of the unit in BOCC meeting minutes is from November 19, 1974.<sup>7</sup>

Currently, the BCSO Strategic Investigations Division houses two units related to drug enforcement: the Major Narcotics Investigation Unit (Broward County Drug Task Force) and the Narcotic Interdiction Unit.<sup>8</sup>
