SUBJECT OVERVIEW:

Downtown Development Authority

The Downtown Development Authority of the City of Fort Lauderdale (DDA) was established by special act of the Legislature in 1965.¹ The DDA serves several functions in the community, including economic development, maintaining important partnerships with governmental entities and the private sector, and overall strengthening the sense of community in downtown Fort Lauderdale.² The DDA is governed by a seven-member board appointed to staggered four-year terms by the Fort Lauderdale City Commission.³ Board members must reside or have their principal place of business within the city.⁴ Each board member must also be a landowner, leasehold tenant required to pay taxes by the terms of the lease, or an officer, director, or managing agent of a corporation owning or leasing land within the DDA.⁵

The DDA charter defines “downtown” as including all lands in a defined area that are not used for residential purposes.⁶ The determination of whether a property is being used as a residence is made by the Director of the DDA.⁷

The Director of the DDA is also responsible for preparing the DDA’s annual budget.⁸ The annual budget must conform to the fiscal year of the city and contain the information required of city departments in their respective budgets.⁹ The budget is submitted to the Board of the DDA for approval.¹⁰ After approval, a copy of the budget is submitted to the city with a statement of the necessary millage to fund services, as determined by the Board.¹¹

The Fort Lauderdale City Commission is authorized to levy an ad valorem tax of up to 1 mill to finance the operations of the DDA.¹² The funds generated by this tax are held by the city for use by the DDA.¹³ The City Commission may collect reasonable pro rata share of the funds for the cost of handling and auditing.¹⁴

The DDA’s total operating budget in the current fiscal year is $20.7 million, which includes $15.2 million in reserves.¹⁵ The DDA levies a base ad valorem tax of 0.6368 mills, as well as debt service millage of 0.4065 mills, for a total millage of 1.0433 mills. At the conclusion of the most recent fiscal year, the DDA’s total assets exceeded its liabilities by $8,672,283.¹⁶

The DDA’s original charter provided the district would sunset on December 31, 1970.¹⁷ In 1969, the charter was re-codified and the sunset date was extended to December 31, 2010.¹⁸ In 2005, the sunset date was again extended to the current expiration date of December 31, 2030.¹⁹
