Senator Gruters moved the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Between lines 1055 and 1056

insert:

Section 21. By October 1, 2025, and quarterly thereafter, each public airport in this state using CLEAR for expedited security screening shall submit a report to the Department of Transportation which details the efficacy of the program for the preceding quarter. The report must include, at a minimum, all of the following information:

(1) The number of passengers using the CLEAR program.

649106

12 (2) The number of CLEAR passengers who also had their 13 identity verified by a TSA officer.

14 (3) Any security breaches, including, but not limited to,
15 the number of CLEAR passengers who were found not to have proper
16 identification, the number of CLEAR passengers who were found
17 not to have a proper boarding pass, and the number of passengers
18 who used the CLEAR expedited screening process but who were not
19 CLEAR members.

20 (4) Whether CLEAR passengers were routed through a standard
21 security lane, a TSA PreCheck security lane, or a security lane
22 dedicated solely to CLEAR passengers.

23 (5) The number of CLEAR kiosks at the airport.

24 (6) The number of days any CLEAR kiosks were out of 25 service.
