requirements; audits; challenges.-

- (3) For purposes of this section, the term:
- (a) "Extraordinary circumstances" means:
- 1. For a county, that the permanent population estimate determined for the county by the University of Florida Bureau of Economic and Business Research is at least 1.25 times the 5-year high-series population projection for the county as published by the University of Florida Bureau of Economic and Business Research immediately before the year of the population estimate; or
- 2. For a municipality, that the municipality is located within a county with such a permanent population estimate and the municipality demonstrates that it has maintained a proportionate share of the county's population growth during the preceding 5-year period.
- (6) A local government, school district, or special district may increase an impact fee only as provided in this subsection.
- (g) A local government, school district, or special district may increase an impact fee rate beyond the phase-in limitations established under paragraph (b), paragraph (c), paragraph (d), or paragraph (e) by establishing the need for such increase in full compliance with the requirements of subsection (4), provided the following criteria are met:
- 1. A demonstrated-need study justifying any increase in excess of those authorized in paragraph (b), paragraph (c), paragraph (d), or paragraph (e) has been completed within the 12 months before the adoption of the impact fee increase and expressly demonstrates the extraordinary circumstances necessitating the need to exceed the phase-in limitations. The demonstrated-need study must identify the specific projects that will benefit, and how such projects will benefit, from exceeding the phase-in limitations.

- 2. The local government jurisdiction has held not less than two publicly noticed workshops dedicated to the extraordinary circumstances necessitating the need to exceed the phase-in limitations set forth in paragraph (b), paragraph (c), paragraph (d), or paragraph (e).
- 3. The impact fee increase ordinance is approved by at least a two-thirds vote of the governing body.
- Section 3. Subsection (8) is added to section 166.033, Florida Statutes, to read:
 - 166.033 Development permits and orders.-
- (8) A municipality may not as a condition of processing or issuing a development permit or development order require an applicant to install a work of art, pay a fee for a work of art, or reimburse the municipality for any costs that the municipality may incur related to a work of art.
 - Section 4. This act shall take effect July 1, 2025.
