405 with The Florida Bar.

406 8. The exempt status of a home address contained in the 408 protected party resides at the dwelling location. Upon 409 conveyance of real property after October 1, 2021, and when such

429 court order and must be notarized, must confirm the request for 430 release is due to the death of a protected party, and must 431 specify the Official Records book and page number, instrument 432 number, or clerk's file number for each document containing the 433 information to be released. A fee may not be charged for the 434 release of any document pursuant to such request.

435 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public 436 necessity that the home addresses, telephone numbers, dates of 437 birth, and photographs of sexual assault counselors, as defined 438 in s. 90.5035(1), Florida Statutes, be made exempt from s.
439 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, and s. 24(a), Article I of the 440 State Constitution. Sexual assault counselors regularly support
441 individuals who are victims of crime by offering emotional
442 assistance, providing resources, and helping the victims
443 navigate the legal process. Sexual assault counselors often work
444 closely with law enforcement agencies, government organizations,
445 and other entities to ensure that the victims' rights are upheld 446 and the victims' needs are addressed. The personal identifying 447 and location information of sexual assault counselors is 448 frequently documented in police reports or other official 449 records that are provided to a defendant and his or her legal 450 counsel as part of the discovery process. Those documents are

451 subject to public records requests, making the sexual assault
452 counselors' personal identifying and location information
453 readily available. The release of this information has led to 454 sexual assault counselors becoming targets of harassment,
455 threats, or retaliation from individuals connected to the cases
456 on which the sexual assault counselors work. The Legislature
457 finds that the release of such personal identifying and location 458 information could place sexual assault counselors in danger of 459 being stalked or physically or emotionally harmed by a defendant 460 or other individual. Therefore, the Legislature finds that the 461 harm that may result from the release of such personal 462 identifying and location information outweighs any public 463 benefit that may be derived from the disclosure of the 464 information.

465 Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2025.
