SUMMARY

Effect of the Bill:

The bill deletes statutory provisions that have been repealed by a previous session of the Legislature where that repeal or expiration date of the provision has occurred, rendering the provision without effect. Such provisions may be omitted from publication in the 2025 Florida Statutes only through a reviser's bill duly enacted by the Legislature.

Fiscal or Economic Impact:

None.

ANALYSIS

EFFECT OF THE BILL:

The effect of the reviser's bill is of technical, non-substantive nature. This reviser's bill repeals provision that have become inoperative by noncurrent repeal or expiration and, pursuant to s. 11.242(5)(b) and (i), F.S., may be omitted from publication in the 2025 Florida Statutes only through a reviser's bill duly enacted by the Legislature.

Provisions that have expired, become obsolete, had their effect, served their purposes, or have been impliedly repealed or superseded are deleted. (Sections 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, 8, 9, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, and 19).

Sections are amended to conform to the effect of another section's repeal. (Sections 3, 7, 10, 11, 17, 18, 20, and 21).

The bill takes effect on the 60th day after adjournment sine die. (Section 22).

RELEVANT INFORMATION

SUBJECT OVERVIEW:

Section 11.242 F.S., requires the Division of Law Revision of the Office of Legislative Services to conduct a systematic and continuing study of the state's statutes and laws. The purpose of this study is to recommend to the Legislature changes that would:

- remove inconsistencies, redundancies, and unnecessary repetition;
- improve clarity; and
- facilitate correct and proper interpretation.

Such changes include:

- Corrections to grammatical and typographical errors.
- Removal of expired or obsolete statutes and laws.
- Transfer, consolidation, and renumbering of sections, subsections, chapters, and titles.

STORAGE NAME: h7019.REC

DATE: 4/2/2025

The recommended changes are submitted to the Legislature as technical, non-substantive reviser's bills.
