The Committee on Community Affairs (Simon) recommended the following:

Senate Amendment

Delete lines 22 - 26
and insert:
specified in s. 196.031, the exemption from ad valorem tax which the quadriplegic received carries over to the benefit of the quadriplegic's spouse until such time as he or she remarries or sells or otherwise disposes of the property. If the spouse sells or otherwise disposes of the property, an exemption not to exceed
